WILSON'S ELECTION
IF LEAGUE IS DEFEATED.

Republican Leaders See the President Making His Position Invincible Before the People.

BY ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Many observers of the vacillation of some of the Republican leaders in the Senate, in formulating a policy opposed to the League of Nations, have been puzzled as to this lack of agreement. Today, on the very threshold of the active effort to complete the ratification, there is no agreement among the Republican Senators in the Senate on Foreign Relations. Calling President Wilson before the committee, his proposed speaking trip and some of the other more or less important matters confronting them is not their chief trouble. These matters are less important.

The big thing that is bothering Lodge and Knox and some of the other leaders is the knowledge that if the Republicans defeat the League of Nations plan and leave the United States open to war, the President will run again for the Presidency. He has told this to his official family and to the closest political friends around him. And he means it. If he should be compelled to run, he will have some great political advantages under the circumstances.

of the league supplanting themselves.

"WHISTLING IN GRAVEYARD."

While Senator Johnson returned to Washington yesterday full of optimism concerning his New England trip, he was accused of whistling through the graveyard to keep up his courage. At Springfield, Mass., no local citizen could be secured to act as chairman and introduce him. E. A. Coolidge, an important factor in the League of Nations, came from Boston to preside at Providence, no one could be found to act as chairman or introduce him, and a local politician and former office-holder informally asked that the speaker be granted a hearing.

Senator Reed in Alabama is having hard sledding of the same kind and none of the orators against the League are willing to take the place of the speaker.

Borah and Johnson among the Republicans are regarded in a particularly unfavorable position. They have gotten so far out on the limb that they cannot get back, and, as one Republican leader put it tonight, "they are both busily engaged in saving themselves off with their own hands."

Both of them may wake up when it is too late to find that they are men without a party.

The Mission from Abyssinia.

Now in Washington to congratulate America on the successful conclusion of the war.

ABYSSINIA SEEKING CLOSER RELATIONS.

MISSION BEARING CONGRATULATIONS OVER PEACE ALSO IS AFTER TRADE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Coming as the representatives of one of the oldest civilized nations, bearing gifts from their sovereign, a special mission from Abyssinia is in Washington bearing the congratulations of their country to the United States upon the successful termination of the world war and the bringing about of peace. This is the first delegation of its kind to arrive in Washington.

The delegation was received yesterday by President Wilson and consists of the following: The Dejazach Naga, head of the mission; the Kantiba Gabrou, the Ato Herouy and the Ato Sinka, who acts as secretary. In making their presentation to the President, the Dejazach spoke in his native language, which was translated by the Kantiba, the only one of the party to speak English. The reply of the President was also translated by the Kantiba.

The visit of the mission is expected to open up trade relations between the two countries. In the exchange of remarks it was made clear that Abyssinia is desirous of closer communication and business dealings. It was pointed out that the developments of science have brought all the world in closer touch and the Near and Far East will become better known in the West.

The Orientals were dressed in rich velvet robes of bright colors and adorned with handsome jewelry. Their presents included a pair of tusks and gold and silver jeweled caskets. The presents will be added to the White House collection.

Typical visitors from the land of the Queen of Sheba attracted no little attention in the capital, which is the center of the empire, to foreigners and foreign costumes.

Episcopals to grant women equal rights.

TACOMA, July 15.—A committee of twelve striking telephone girls, together with representatives of the striking telephone men and members of the Metal Trades Council, went to Olympia today in the endeavor to persuade Gov. Hart to take action for a settlement of the telephone strike.

The governor, it was said, will be urged to follow the lead of the Tacoma City Council in asking Postmaster-General Burleson to bring the strike to an end.

PEASANTS OF AISNE IN NEED OF RELIEF.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, July 15.—One hundred thousand peasant families in the Aisne district of France, the region allotted for the relief work of the American Committee for Devastated France are dependent upon the American people for help, John Kendrick Bangs, the author, reports today upon his arrival here on the French Line Steamer Espagne.

Mr. Bangs, who has been making a two-months' study of relief work for the committee, declared the majority of the peasants are homeless and money and with only a scanty food supply to tide them over the winter.

Mr. Bangs asserted the committee was helping the farmers of the region by the distribution of seed, the loan of farm tractors to till their soil and the distribution of chickens, goats and rabbits.

Another Hun conflict foreseen.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

VANCOUVER (B. C.) July 15.—The world war just closed was not Armageddon; another conflict will follow; for the Germans are not regenerated, Premier Massey of New Zealand declared in a speech before the Canadian Club here today.

"Germany," he asserted, "has been given a great opportunity of rehabilitating herself, and in a few months will be one of the first industrial nations of the world. I have been told, and I believe it, that German chemists are now at work and will be until the next war comes, to invent far more destructive methods for the crushing of their enemies than they employed in the war just ended."

DOLLAR'S WORTH NOW
ONLY FIFTY CENTS.

BANKER SAYS HIGH WAGES HERE TO STAY AND INVESTORS LOSERS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, July 15.—George E. Roberts, vice-president of the National City Bank, told the Jobbers' Association of Dress Fabric Buyers today that the 50-cent dollar was here.

The government let contracts right and left, and the banks supplied the credits," he said. "Contractors bid against each other, and there was justice in the claim for higher wages. Is this level permanent? I am not ready to believe that it is. I do not want to believe it is, for I think it will work a vast amount of injustice. It means that money and all obligations to pay fixed sums of money are depreciated approximately one-half. It means that the billions of painfully accumulated savings in the form of bank deposits, or invested in bonds and mortgages, and the billions in life insurance policies, are to the extent of possibly one-half wiped out as with a sponge. The owners of these investments will find that the interest as it is received and the principal when finally paid will have only about one-half the purchasing power of their original savings."

NATIONS WARNED OF HUNGARIAN SECURITIES.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, July 15.—The Inter-Allied council today asked all nations to be on their guard against the securities held in Hungary, and which the Hungarian soviet government has ordered the banks to deliver.

The council directed the attention of Allied and neutral governments, as well as Germany and Austria, to the danger that might follow the use of these funds for propaganda.

Senate Asks for Information on Germany-Japan Treaty of 1918.

LODGE LEADS IN LEAGUE ATTACK.

Republican Leader Says Shantung is Price Paid.

Hitchcock Protests Resolution Based on Paper.

Williams Warns World not to Teach China to War.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, July 15.—With a record vote, the Senate today adopted Senator Lodge's resolution asking the President for information as to an alleged treaty negotiated between Japan and Germany in 1918. The Senate then adjourned until Thursday.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The stormy Senate fight over the peace treaty shifted away from the League of Nations covenant today and broke with a new fury about the provision giving Shantung Peninsula to Japan. In five hours of debate the treaty opponents charged in bitter terms that the Tokyo government had wheedled Shantung from China at the peace table without the shadow of a cause except the ambition of conquest, and supporters of the treaty defended the course of President Wilson in the negotiations by declaring the only alternative was failure of the whole Peace Conference.

Chairman Lodge of the Foreign Relations Committee declared Shantung was a "price paid" for Japan's acceptance of the League of Nations. Senator Norris, Republican of Nebraska, charged that Japan, in 1917, secretly had invaded the European allies into a promise to support her Shantung claims. Senator Borah, Republican of Idaho, asserted that if the United States must either underwrite the Shantung agreement or accept the challenge of another power the country would choose the latter course.

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, ranking Democrat of the committee, replied that the German rights in Shantung were obtained legally by treaty in 1918 and were won fairly from Germany by Japan long before the United States entered the war. Senator Williams, Democrat of Mississippi, said the President had to accept the Shantung settlement or some home without a general treaty of peace and that Japan never would give up the peninsula unless forced to do so by war.

INFORMATION REQUESTED. To the end the Senate adopted without a record vote a resolution by Senator Lodge asking the President for any available information about a secret treaty alleged to have been negotiated between Japan and Germany in 1918 embodying a plan for Russia's rebirth and promising Japan's indirect protection of German interests at the Versailles negotiations.

A sweeping request for information about the conversations at Versailles also was sent to the White House by the Foreign Relations Committee, which adopted a resolution by Senator Johnson, Republican of California, calling for all proposed drafts for a league covenant, for reports of the arguments relative to the league and for "all data bearing upon or used in connection with the treaty of peace."

COMMITTEE READS TREATY. At the meeting the committee began the reading of the treaty, covering in less than two hours about one-fifth of its sections, but passing over for future consideration the league covenant, the boundaries of Germany and many minor provisions. The reading will continue at a long session tomorrow, the Senate having adjourned until Thursday so Cupid's Shaft Hits Rancher at Eighty-three, Bride at Seventy-eight.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

SAN DIEGO, July 15.—William H. Hale, 83, and Mrs. Martha Chamberlin, 78, of this city, eloped yesterday and were married in Los Angeles.

The aged bridegroom is a rancher living near East San Diego and came here from Indiana many years ago. His wife died about two years ago and recently he decided to marry again. Mrs. John Hale, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, when told of the marriage, said she knew nothing of the marriage nor the woman Mr. Hale had married.

pan succeeded Germany by virtue of the peace conference. England and France took Belgium away from Germany during the war. Does that give them a claim to Belgium? Shantung was not enemy country like Fiume. It was handed over to Japan as a reward for its aid of our delegates and experts charged with this question.

"JAPAN'S SIGNATURE NEEDED." "It was handed over because Japan's signature was needed to the league. It was done as a necessity. It takes the territory of a friend, an ally who had been loyal, and hands it over to a great military power in the East.

"Japan is building up a vast empire in China," continued Senator Lodge, "and we in this treaty are helping her do it."

Senator Lodge called upon his resolution asking the President for information as to an alleged treaty secretly negotiated between Japan and Germany in 1918.

HITCHCOCK PROTESTS. Senator Hitchcock, Nebraska, senior Democrat of the committee, said he desired to protest "against resolutions of this class, based upon such flimsy evidence as the newspaper reports of this character."

"It is unworthy of the Senate," he declared. "Every nation that sat around the council table," said the Idaho Senator, "was under a solemn duty to protect the integrity of China. But no nation ever played her diplomatic game with greater foresight than did Japan. In the first place she put forward her racial equality clause, which she did not expect to quit the conference. Then, when the question of the German possessions came up, she was in a position to say that she must not be refused twice on matters vital to her."

"The President could do nothing else than give Shantung to Japan if he wanted the treaty signed. But the whole question with us is whether the United States will be made now a party to that transaction."

do not anticipate that if we refuse to underwrite and guarantee the rape of China we will have to go to war. I do not think Japan expects us to underwrite this. She would have been perfectly satisfied with a treaty with Great Britain and France. That is their business."

"But if the time indeed has come when the United States must engage in the enslaving of peoples and must break her forty-eight treaties guaranteeing Chinese integrity or else face the challenge of another nation, then she will face the challenge of another nation. We have cried long enough."

Repeating how Germany secured the Shantung concessions and how Japan succeeded Germany by virtue of the peace conference, Senator Lodge continued: "England and France took Belgium away from Germany during the war. Does that give them a claim to Belgium? Shantung was not enemy country like Fiume. It was handed over to Japan as a reward for its aid of our delegates and experts charged with this question."

"We are not making a gift to Japan, nor a bribe," he added, emphasizing that Japan was to receive no territorial nor sovereign rights in Shantung, but merely commercial concessions, including railroads.

Senator Thomas of Colorado, Democrat, expressed his disapproval of Germany's action in securing the Chinese concessions, but said something should be said in support of Japan.

He read statements by Japanese statesmen in an effort to establish the sincerity of Japanese government as follows:

ABLE CHAMPION OF NATIONS' LEAGUE.

Senator Underwood.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, July 15.—A charge that Japan secretly secured pledges from Great Britain, France, Italy and Russia early in 1917 that in the peace settlement Shantung Peninsula should, for certain considerations, be turned over to the Tokyo government, was made in the Senate today by Senator Norris, Republican of Nebraska, who produced what he declared to be copies of diplomatic correspondence embodying promises of Great Britain and France.

These pledges, the Nebraska Senator said, fully explained the pressure which resulted in Shantung's transfer to Japan under the Versailles treaty, whose ratification by the Senate, he asserted, would write "the blackest page in the nation's history."

Great Britain's influence in the matter, he charged, was secured by Japan's support of British claims to Pacific islands south of the equator, while France was purchased by a promise of the Tokyo government to help draw China into the war so that German ships in Chinese harbors would be available for carrying troops and provisions to France.

On the 27th day of March, 1916, Senator Norris said, the Japanese Minister of Foreign Affairs at Tokyo approached the British Ambassador located at that place with a view of bringing about an agreement between the Japanese government and the British government in which the British Ambassador cabled to his government at London, and after several instructions from his government, wrote the Japanese government as follows:

"My dear Excellency: 'With reference to the subject of the Japanese request for the British Majesty's government accedes with pleasure to the request of the Japanese government for assurance that they will support Japan's claims in regard to the disposal of Germany's rights in Shantung and possessions in the islands north of the equator on the occasion of the Peace Conference. It being understood that the Japanese government will in the eventual peace settlement treat in the same spirit the claims of the Japanese government to the islands south of the equator.'

"I avail myself of this opportunity," Mr. Minister, to renew my assurance of the Japanese government's highest consideration."

"His Britannic Majesty's Ambassador," on the 21st day of February, 1917, the Japanese government replied to this communication of the British government as follows:

"The Japanese government is deeply appreciative of the friendly spirit in which your government has given assurance and happy to note it as fresh proof of the close ties that unite the two allied powers in pleasure in stating that the Japanese government on its part is fully prepared to support in the future the claims of the British government in regard to the islands south of the equator."

MESSAGE TO FRANCE. "While the Japanese government was waiting for a reply from the British government it proceeded also to negotiate with the other Allied governments. Its message to the French Ambassador at Tokyo, signed by the Japanese Foreign Minister, and was as follows:

"The Imperial Japanese government proposes to demand from Germany at the time of the signature of the peace treaty the territorial rights and special interests Germany possessed before the war in Shantung and the islands situated north of the equator in the Pacific Ocean."

"The Imperial Japanese government confidently hopes the government of the French republic, realizing the legitimacy of these demands, will give assurance that her case being proved, Japan may count upon its support in this question."

"It goes without saying that reparations for the damage caused to the life and property of the Japanese people by the unjustifiable attacks of the enemy as well as other conditions of peace, of a character common to all the Entente powers are entirely outside the consideration of the present situation."

"A few days later the French Ambassador replied to the Japanese Foreign Office as follows:

FRANCE'S REPLY. "The government of the French republic is disposed to give the Japanese government its accord in regulating at the time the peace negotiations questions vital to Japan concerning Shantung and the German islands in the Pacific north of the equator. It also agrees to support the demands of the Imperial Japanese government for the return of the rights Germany possessed before the war in this Chinese province and these islands."

SHANTUNG DEAL MADE IN 1917?

Norris Charges Japan Secretly Obtained Pledges.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, July 15.—A charge that Japan secretly secured pledges from Great Britain, France, Italy and Russia early in 1917 that in the peace settlement Shantung Peninsula should, for certain considerations, be turned over to the Tokyo government, was made in the Senate today by Senator Norris, Republican of Nebraska, who produced what he declared to be copies of diplomatic correspondence embodying promises of Great Britain and France.

These pledges, the Nebraska Senator said, fully explained the pressure which resulted in Shantung's transfer to Japan under the Versailles treaty, whose ratification by the Senate, he asserted, would write "the blackest page in the nation's history."

Great Britain's influence in the matter, he charged, was secured by Japan's support of British claims to Pacific islands south of the equator, while France was purchased by a promise of the Tokyo government to help draw China into the war so that German ships in Chinese harbors would be available for carrying troops and provisions to France.

On the 27th day of March, 1916, Senator Norris said, the Japanese Minister of Foreign Affairs at Tokyo approached the British Ambassador located at that place with a view of bringing about an agreement between the Japanese government and the British government in which the British Ambassador cabled to his government at London, and after several instructions from his government, wrote the Japanese government as follows:

"My dear Excellency: 'With reference to the subject of the Japanese request for the British Majesty's government accedes with pleasure to the request of the Japanese government for assurance that they will support Japan's claims in regard to the disposal of Germany's rights in Shantung and possessions in the islands north of the equator on the occasion of the Peace Conference. It being understood that the Japanese government will in the eventual peace settlement treat in the same spirit the claims of the Japanese government to the islands south of the equator.'

"I avail myself of this opportunity," Mr. Minister, to renew my assurance of the Japanese government's highest consideration."

"His Britannic Majesty's Ambassador," on the 21st day of February, 1917, the Japanese government replied to this communication of the British government as follows:

"The Japanese government is deeply appreciative of the friendly spirit in which your government has given assurance and happy to note it as fresh proof of the close ties that unite the two allied powers in pleasure in stating that the Japanese government on its part is fully prepared to support in the future the claims of the British government in regard to the islands south of the equator."

AIRSHIP LINE TO CROSS CONTINENT.

Milwaukee Company Building Planes to Carry Twenty-six Passengers.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—Arrangements are being made for a transcontinental airship service to carry freight and passengers, Alfred W. Lawson, heading a Milwaukee company, told the San Francisco Board of Supervisors when he applied today for landing facilities here.

There will be two "raids" in each direction daily, he said, but he did not announce on what date the service would start.

The company is building airplanes, Lawson said, that will accommodate twenty-six persons each.

Lawson said he had made application at Sacramento for landing facilities.

many in the concessions she possesses in certain parts of China, he said, that she is the aggressor in the war. Prevent the incentive for war growing out of a selfish desire for aggression, as the overweening force of this covenant will do, and few actual causes of war will remain that cannot without difficulty or danger be submitted to the high court of arbitration.

NEW MEXICO DISPUTES COLORADO BOUNDARY.

DENVER, July 15.—A bill of complaint by the state of New Mexico against the state of Colorado was filed today in the United States Supreme Court in connection with a long boundary dispute between the two commonwealths.

According to the state of New Mexico, the boundary line between the two states was established by a treaty made in 1821. New Mexico officials say the territory between the Colorado and Rio Grande rivers contains 50,000 acres of land, the inter-state boundary line between the two states was established by a treaty made in 1821. ments of the world. Such a decree is not found within the contract, but there is a covenant that seems to keep the peace of the world, that authorizes the executive council of the league to consider how much the present armaments of nations should be reduced.

ELIMINATES WAR'S CAUSE. "Another vital principle that we are asked to agree to is that all of the members of the league shall submit differences between them that are not capable of being settled by negotiation before a tribunal to be composed of judges or arbitrators agreed to by them, and after entering into the arbitration they are required to abide by the award."

But the greatest principle of the league tending to keep the peace of the world is that which declares that the high contracting parties to this treaty shall undertake to respect and preserve against external aggression the political independence and the territorial integrity of every member of the league. Most of the wars that have been waged in the ages that have passed have had as their cause the aggression of one nation upon another.

WEDNESDAY MORNING,

MINOR CHARGES ARE GIVEN OUT.

Wrote Spartan Pamphlet to Distribute to Army.

Asks "Why are American Soldiers Now in Europe?"

Says They Came for Democracy, Now Aid Junkers.

BY EDWIN L. JAMES.

(BY CABLE—REUTERS DISPATCH.)

COBLENZ, July 14.—Here are some of the chief points in the formal charges against Robert Minor, which were suppressed when the higher-ups took the case away from the military authorities who were appointed to try Minor, released him and sent him to Paris where he has a passport and is about to sail for the United States. Minor was charged with writing a Spartan pamphlet for distribution in the British and American armies. This was printed at Düsseldorf and turned over to a fellow Spartan, a printer and asked for estimates; that he submitted a Spartan pamphlet to a manufacturer in Düsseldorf; that he had marked in Berlin that the time was ripe to spread the doctrine of Lenin and Trotsky among the American troops in Germany.

CASE PREPARED, DROPPED. There were other witnesses to testify to other things about Minor's record in Russia and Germany, but somehow or other it has not yet been fully explained—the case against Minor was dropped after it had been prepared and was ready for trial.

Specification One of the charges says that Minor did "engage with other persons in a campaign of propaganda directed to and against the United States of America, and did for the purpose thereof, compose, write, prepare, cause, assist in causing to be printed, disseminate, distribute, and attempt to distribute and cause and attempt to assist in causing to be distributed to members of the army of the United States and of its allies, various and sundry documents, pamphlets and notices, the object and purpose and effect of which were to

LET RICH MAN WASH WINDOWS.

He has just come back here and he wants to wash the windows in his residence, so he had to go, hat in hand, to the City Council for permission. Use of a hose for windows is forbidden because of the drought. Mr. Heitman's windows could be reached no other way. After long consideration the Council finally allowed the millionaire to wash his windows—just this once.

create unrest, dissatisfaction, defection, revolt and mutiny and to weaken the morale and fighting efficiency and force of said Allies in a manner and form contrary to the rules, methods, laws, and customs of war."

THE OFFENDING PAMPHLET. Specification Two consists of the pamphlet itself which is headed "Why American soldiers are in Europe," and begins with these words: "American soldiers, do you know why you are here?"

"Thousands of miles across the sea are your homes, your friends, your jobs and your future life. Your family is waiting for your return, your mother or your wife or maybe your sweetheart, who is anxiously awaiting to become your wife."

"Why can't you go now? Why did you come here in the first place? You are not here to help us complete our revolution but to prevent it. Your government and all the Allied governments are supporting the same scoundrels who helped the Kaiser through the war—the Ebert-Scheidemann government, because the Ebert-Scheidemann government helped the Kaiser and will always fight against him."

ROLL SOLDIER IN MUD BECAUSE HE SMILED.

ENLISTED MEN TELL OF CRUELTY PRACTICED IN AMERICAN CAMPS.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Six former American soldiers who testified today before a special House committee investigating alleged cruelties to military prisoners in France, declared that merciless assaults were committed without provocation on the prisoners by arrogant officers in charge of the prisons and camps. Only one of the witnesses, all of whom were charged with being absent without leave, was convicted, the others having been acquitted of the charges and dismissed.

"The bastille," "the stockade," "prison farm No. 2" and "St. Anne's Hotel," among others, were the names of the places named by the witnesses as the scene of the alleged cruelties, which were said to have extended over several months in 1918. Some officers in charge of the prison camps, it was said, have been convicted by court-martial, and others were awaiting trial.

HARD-BOILED SMITH. Lieut. "Hard-boiled" Smith, one of the prison camp officers mentioned frequently, while others named were Lieut. Mason and Sullivan and Sergt. Ball, Wolfmeyer and Bush.

"Did they try the general in charge of the camp?" asked Chairman Rogers. "Yes," replied Smith, "he was tried in Congress to serve with the army abroad."

"Fifty witnesses who I can name will verify everything said here and tell more of the same," said Smith. "The House was voted by the President, it carried $6,000,000 for this purpose."

Illinois Colonel Says Army was Groggy at Finish.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The Second Division of regulars and attached units have been assigned to early return home. This division includes the Fifth and Sixth regiments of marines. Its release from duty overseas leaves only the First and Third divisions assigned to active duty overseas.

American overseas forces aggregated $17,329 officers and men on July 8, according to an official announcement today. On the same date 100,000 troops were at sea en route to the United States and 353,000 were in this country.

VOCATIONAL AID PROVIDED. Eighteen million dollars for the vocational training of injured soldiers, sailors and marines, is provided in an amendment to the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill tentatively adopted by the House today by a vote of 120 to 119. As the appropriation measure originally passed the House and was vetoed by the President, it carried $6,000,000 for this purpose.

The House Appropriation Committee decided today to recommend repassage of the sundry civil bill and decided to recommend a provision making $12,000,000 immediately available for the Federal Board of Vocational Education and allowing the board $38 instead of fifty-two employees, at salaries of $2500 a year or more. The measure as amended was passed by the House today by a vote of 120 to 119. As the appropriation measure originally passed the House and was vetoed by the President, it carried $6,000,000 for this purpose.

RODMAN WILL STUDY CONDITIONS ON COAST.

ADMIRAL PLANS TO MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS TO IMPROVE NAVAL BASES.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Senators and Representatives from the Pacific Coast discussed with Admiral Hugh Rodman today the forthcoming voyage of the Pacific fleet to the West Coast. Admiral Rodman said he planned to study conditions on the Pacific seaboard with a view to making recommendations to the department for such improvements of existing naval bases as will be necessary for the permanent rank of rear-admiral and seven others to the temporary rank upon recommendations of the naval selection board approved by President Wilson.

Benjamin C. Bryan, Edward Simpson, Gustav Kaemmerling, Alexander Halstead, Roger Welles and William Shoemaker become rear admirals as of July 1, and Edward W. Eberle, Robert E. Coontz, W. G. H. Dillard and Philip Andrews will become permanent rear-admirals as soon as vacancies occur, and Capt. Clarence A. Carr, Harry A. Field, Casey B. Morgan, Lloyd H. Chandler, Herman S. Slickney, Nathan C. Twining and Thomas P. Masgruder become temporaries as vacancies occur.

SAYS MORE DIED FROM DRILL THAN BULLETS.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

NEW YORK, July 15.—According to Elizabeth Frazier, correspondent, who returned on the Prinz Frederick William, there would have been no first or second divisions had the war lasted much longer.

"After the armistice was signed," she said, "the American army marched into Germany in British shoes, poor at best, and hard on the instep. Many of the men went lame."

Miss Frazier also charged that some swivel chair officers had ordered the march after they had arrived in Germany to drill eight hours a day in cold, snowy, rugged climate. She asserted that American officers informed her that the order caused more deaths than German bullets.

of Newmark's Pure High Grade Coffee

A quarter century ago today—July 16th, 1894—the institution that through all these years has been responsible for the unvarying high quality of "Newmark's" Pure High Grade Coffee first came into being.

The test of time has given this popular blend undisputed first place in the homes of the great Southwest.

Our efforts have been sincere to give to you the highest quality of coffee that expert roasting and skillful blending of the world's highest grade coffees could produce—and yet we are not unmindful of the part your good will and your patronage have had in our success.

And the most significant message we can express on this, our twenty-fifth anniversary occasion, is to convey our genuine appreciation to you and to pledge anew our adherence to the same high standards which have characterized this business for the past quarter century.

HOUSE TO RECONSIDER DAYLIGHT SAVING LAW

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, July 15.—The House of Representatives today adopted a resolution to reconsider the daylight saving law, passed last year, and to report the result to the Senate and House Agriculture Committee.

Senate leaders insisted on another vote by the House on the rider to the agricultural bill to repeal the daylight saving act.

The matter will be considered tomorrow by the full House Agriculture Committee.

NO MORE BEER IN PITTSBURGH.

Federal Judge Overrules Demurrers of Brewers.

Ruling Applies Also to Independent Company.

Defendants Held for November Term; Bail $1000.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
PITTSBURGH, July 15.—Brewing of beer in Pittsburgh will end, for a time at least, as the result of Federal Judge Thomson's action in overruling demurrers of officers and directors of the Pittsburgh and Independent Brewing companies to charges of violation of the war-time prohibition law, according to an announcement late today by Attorney William J. Brennan, counsel for brewers and saloonkeepers in Allegheny county. Each of the defendants, nineteen in all, was held in $1000 bail for the November term of court.

Judge Thomson's decision followed arguments by counsel representing the eleven officials of the Pittsburgh Brewing Company in support of their demurrers to charges in a test suit brought by United States Attorney R. L. Crawford, charging violation of the dry act by sale of beer containing more than one-half of one per cent. of alcohol to a local saloonkeeper. Judge Thomson said his ruling applied also to demurrers filed this morning by eight directors of the Independent Brewing Company to a similar suit started Saturday.

TEST CASE QUASHED.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
BOSTON, July 15.—A ruling given today by Federal Judge George W. Anderson that the sale of beer which is not intoxicating is not illegal under the present war prohibition act led to the quashing of the government's test case against Sanford F. Pettis and Leopold H. Vogel, liquor dealers of this city.

Pettis and Vogel were arrested last week, charged with selling beer containing at least one-half of one per cent. of alcohol. It was the contention of the government that the sale of any beer was against the law. The defendants demurred, arguing that beer must contain a sufficient amount of alcohol to be intoxicating to be illegal.

BREWER WINS POINT.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
NEW ORLEANS, July 15.—Federal Judge Foster today sustained a demurrer filed by officials of the American Brewing Company to an indictment charging that the manufacture of beer of more than one-half of one per cent. of alcoholic content was in violation of the War-time Prohibition Act.

The demurrer maintained that only intoxicating beer was prohibited and that 2½ per cent. alcohol beer was not intoxicating. In his opinion, Judge Foster said, the commission of internal revenue "had no right to state that beer of more than one-half of one per cent. could not be manufactured," but made no ruling as to whether 2½ per cent. beer was in fact intoxicating. Government counsel announced an appeal would be taken immediately.

REFERENCE ORDERED.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
LINCOLN (Neb.), July 15.—An alternative writ of mandamus directing Secretary of State D. M. Anderson to either accept and file a petition for a referendum on the action of the Nebraska Legislature in amending the Federal prohibition amendment, or show cause by August 4 for not doing so, was issued by the District Court here late today.

The court's order was made on request of John H. Hopkins, an Omaha attorney, following the refusal yesterday of Secretary Anderson to permit the referendum petition to be filed. Secretary Anderson declined to accept the petition on the ground that the submission of the referendum would be in contravention of the Federal Constitution.

WHISKY FOR 20 YEARS.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, July 15.—Before the prohibition enforcement bill was taken up in the House today, Speaker Gillette ruled the Representative Gallivan, Democrat, Massachusetts, in declaring in an address yesterday that he had heard members of Congress had stored away enough whiskey to last them twenty years, had not transgressed the rules of the House.

Representative Blanton, Democrat, of Texas, attacked the speech of the Massachusetts member and on a question of personal privilege was proceeding with the defense of prohibitionists when the speaker cut him short by announcing that Mr. Blanton then tried to offer a motion to have the speech stricken from the record, but there was objection.

A man's right to keep liquor in his own home, which stood the test before the House Judiciary Committee, must take its chances now in the House. Notice was served today on the committee by one of its members that when the House resumes consideration of the prohibition enforcement measure an amendment would be offered to make it unlawful for a person to retain possession of liquor stored prior to July 1.

The committee, in framing the general enforcement measure, eliminated the section which would have made home storage illegal, but the majority polled yesterday by prohibitionists was accepted. In some quarters to mean that the bill in certain respects will be made still more limiting.

The prohibition measure was not taken up today, the sundry civil appropriation bill, vetoed by the President, having the right of way, and neither can it be called tomorrow. After that the agricultural appropriation bill, also vetoed by the President, will have privileged status, and prohibition leaders do not expect to resume work on the measure before Thursday or Friday.

REFORM PROMISED KOREA.

Japanese Premier Issues a Statement in Reply to American Churches.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—A "distinct improvement of condition" and "administrative reform" has been promised for Korea by Premier Hara of Japan, according to information given out here today by T. Ohta, Japanese Consul-General. The Premier's statement was in answer to inquiries by the Committee on Oriental Relations of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America regarding Korean affairs.

The statement was as follows: "I beg to say to you that the reports in circulation regarding abuses said to have been committed by agents of the Japanese government in Korea have had my serious consideration and I am prepared to meet the established facts. As I have said on other occasions, the object of my visit to Korea at the time of the annexation, nearly ten years ago, was to bring about a modification in order to adjust it to the altered condition of things. Since the organization of the present Cabinet in September last, I have given much thought and labor to a plan of administrative reform in Korea. A plan with this object in view is now under consideration. For patent reasons it has not been possible to put it into effect. In accordance with the disturbances which have broken out in various parts of the peninsula, in view, however, of recent betterments in the situation, the contemplated reform measures can now, in my judgment, be safely introduced and same will be put into effect as soon as definite methods of legal procedure have been completed."

"More specific announcements of the plan must be withheld for the present, but I hope that the earnestness with which my colleagues and I are endeavoring to promote the permanent welfare of our Korean kinsmen guaranteeing distinct improvement of conditions—will not be misconstrued."

STATEMENT BY CHURCHES.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
NEW YORK, July 15.—The following statement concerning the situation in Korea was given out today by the committee on relations with the Orient of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, of which Commissioner William L. Haven is chairman and Sidney L. Gulick is secretary:

"The reports of atrocities against the Korean population and especially against the native Christians that have been coming from Korea for several months are confirmed in abundant detail by a special report about to be issued by the commission on relations with the Orient of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

"The commission wishes to make it clear that while it has no jurisdiction to speak on the political issues at stake in Korea, yet, as representing the Christian sentiment of a majority of the American churches, it cannot remain silent when a defenseless people are made the victims of massacre and widespread brutality.

"After nearly three months' study of the Korean situation, this commission is issuing a statement based on the examination of about 1000 pages of manuscript, reports of committees, letters and the personal accounts of responsible eyewitnesses of the events attending the Korean demonstrations in favor of national independence.

"The documents, given out, it is said, were compiled with the aid of thirty Americans and Britons in Korea. One such report estimated that more than 6000 Koreans were in prison for political offenses.

"There is every reason to believe," says Chairman Haven and Secretary Gulick in conclusion, "that Premier Hara and his colleagues will exert their fullest power to rectify wrongs and inaugurate a new era in Korea. Americans should give the strongest possible moral support to the progressive and anti-militarist movements in Japan. This we can do, not by wholesale condemnation of the Japanese government and people, but by distinguishing between the reactionary, autocratic forces that have so largely dominated her policies and leaders that are now coming to the fore. Hope for Korea and indeed for China and the whole world lies in the overthrow of militarism in Japan, as in every land."

NAVAL VESSEL WRECK KILLS SEVEN SEAMEN.
AMERICAN MINE-SWEEPER DESTROYED BY SUBTERRANEAN EXPLOSION.
(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, July 15.—One officer and six enlisted men were killed in the destruction of the American mine-sweeper Richard H. Buckley by the explosion of a mine in the North Sea, July 12. Two other officers were injured.

Two officers and sixteen enlisted men were rescued. The Buckley was engaged with other mine-sweepers in removing the North Sea mine barrage when a mine became entangled in the sweeping cable and exploded directly under the ship's stern. The trawler sank in six minutes before other vessels of the fleet could reach her.

Commander Frank A. King remained on the bridge directing the efforts to save the crew and went down with his ship. The remainder of the dead either were killed by the explosion or trapped below decks when the vessel sank.

FREE A Map of the New Europe

We believe that it is the best map of Europe in the world today. We believe this because it was compiled by those men of the United States Geological Survey, who are the official map makers of the government, because they were assisted in the task by President Wilson's experts who have just returned from the Peace Conference.

The map is printed in nine colors, which show the Allied territory, enemy territory, neutral territory, territory that has changed hands, territory out of which new nations have been built, territory subject to plebiscite, territory of undetermined nationality.

It is a graphic picture of the results of four years of fighting, a picture so painted as to make the results most easily understood.

This map was specially made for the Washington Information Bureau of this paper in collaboration with the Savings Division of the Treasury Department. When it is sent out it is accompanied by a bulletin entitled HOW OTHER PEOPLE GET AHEAD, laying down a working plan for saving for any man of any salary, a plan which leads toward the goal of prosperity.

This map positively cannot be obtained from the Los Angeles office of The Times, and only one copy will be sent to any individual.

To get this map and this booklet fill out the attached coupon, inclose a two-cent stamp for return postage, and mail as indicated.

PAPER IS PROUD OF FIUME RIOTS.

Pro-Italian Publication Denies French Soldiers.

No Effort Made to Protect Unarmed from Mobs.

British Officers Indignant at Hungarian Insults.

BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.

(BY RADIO-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) FIUME, July 15.—A quiet day and night followed the disorders of July 2.

The Italian military band was playing yesterday in the Piazza Dante, where the unarmed soldiers of France died for their lives the evening before. The cafes were more crowded than usual, but during the afternoon and evening the city was like a tomb. Only a small crowd gathered when five British military police tried to enter the wrecked Croatian Club to examine the damage and were refused admittance by the Italian carabinieri.

This morning a paper, pro-Italian, speaks with pride of the affair. It says:

"The citizens showed last night they are not only able to comment, but also without dallying, to take the most energetic action."

"And now that the populace has found means to manifest its contempt for the base act of two soldiers every one should impose on himself calm and last evening one of the Italian soldiers, who suffered with us."

"FIUME VESPER."

With evident reference to the historic Sicilian Vespers when the Frenchmen were massacred by the Italians, the paper calls July 2 "Fiume Vespers."

Then in a long account it accuses two French soldiers of starting the riot, snatching the girls' cookies, picturing all Fiume officers, who act, as rescuers of the French.

"And there were not few cases of French officers beaten for a mocking attitude toward the crowd," continues the article, which passed the Italian censor.

Then follows a rather amusing account of how the Italian officers, despite their utmost efforts, were unable to check the crowd, "which desired satisfaction."

TROOPS IN SYMPATHY.

None of the rioters I saw seemed to belong to substantial elements—business men and laborers. They were, I should say, desperadoes of the cafes. A company of troops could have handled the crowd with ease. Though Italy is believed to have 20,000 men in the Fiume district and though the streets swarmed with cavalry, carabinieri, sailors and guards, the disorders continued for two hours.

Whatever orders the troops may have had, their sympathies manifestly were with the assailants.

In many cases the carabinieri would take charge of a Frenchman only after he had been beaten, even permitting the blows to fall after he had led him to shelter.

The British officers are indignant that their allies, the French, who have suffered most from the war, should have to submit to the insults of Hungarian or enemy subjects. Aside from the political situation which may be created by this event, it will have an unfortunate effect on parts of Southern Dalmatia where the Italian minority is unprotected by Italian troops.

ALLIED PATROLS KEPT IN.

The number of French wounded remains twenty-three, one serious. Besides some ten officers are slightly cut about the head. A few British officers were hurt trying to rescue the French. Neither the French nor the British armed forces were turned out to quell the riot. This is explained as an act of prudence on the part of the commander since the appearance of their armed patrols on the streets at such a time would have been likely to rouse the Italian troops.

The outbreak fell in two stages, between which there was a lull while the rioters sought other victims. The first period was devoted to the French soldiers. But these disappeared from the streets. Gen. Graziosi setting a guard, over the French quarters in response to a request by Gen. Savi, the French commander. Then came the attack on the Croatian Club, the sack of its rooms, and hunting of Croats on the streets. During this period French officers stood in the midst of the mob, smiling calmly at gibes and threats until carabinieri led them away.

LONG-CHERISHED ILL WILL.

French officers think the attack an outbreak of long cherished bad will against them. One officer particularly well informed does not charge that it was an organized plot at a time and place appointed, but that the Giovanni Fiumani (young Italian thugs of Fiume) have had the intention to seize the first good opportunity.

The French deny the accusation that on the day peace was signed their soldiers cried: "Vive la Jugoslavie." In the streets. There were French celebrations and singing of the "Marseillaise" in sharp contrast to the phlegmatic unconcern of Fiume at the end of the war.

As the Italian troops outnumber all the other Allies together in the Fiume district, and as the Italian command is Italian, the French and British are powerless in such cases as July 2. This fact has greatly injured Allied prestige in Fiume even in friendly quarters.

SINGING SAN DIEGO.

Hearing of Big Case in Bay City by San Bernardino Jurists.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.) SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—San Bernardino county established a complete department of its Superior Court in San Francisco today when Judge Rex B. Goodell started the hearing of a number of local witnesses in the $1,000,000 damage suit of Otay Valley ranch owners against the city of San Diego in connection with the breaking of the lower Otay dam in 1916. The court already has held sessions at the dam site, San Diego, Bear Valley, Los Angeles and San Bernardino in hearing the action. The court is expected to be in session a week here, after which it will again reconvene in San Diego.

COMPTROLLER ADMITS ATTACKING BANKERS.

COOPER CHARGES BRANDED AS "WANTONLY FALSE AND MALICIOUS."

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Resuming his testimony today before the Senate Banking Committee, John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the currency, defended the administration of the office and accused Wade Cooper, a Washington banker, of having circulated false and damaging statements against him and his office.

The comptroller defended his action in sending to bankers a memorandum attacking Mr. Cooper. Pressed by Chairman McLean for his motives in doing this, Mr. Williams said it was to counteract statements circulated by Mr. Cooper and to inform the public and stockholders relative to the management of banks operated by Mr. Cooper and his brother.

The comptroller was before the committee the entire day, and made a general denial of the Cooper charges, which he branded as "wantonly false and malicious." He submitted to the committee a letter from Director-General of Railroads Hines absolving him from any connection with the making of a compensation contract with the Georgia and Florida Railroad.

That is a fair sample of the gross inaccuracies of statements made to this committee by that witness," declared Mr. Williams, referring to the testimony of Mr. Cooper after he had read Director-General Hines's letter.

Mr. Williams also denied accusations made by Mr. Cooper that the bank of John L. Williams & Sons, at Richmond, Va., with which Mr. Williams was formerly connected, has been permitted to overdraw its accounts at the Washington bank, and read a memorandum filed with the national examiner which declared that Mr. Cooper's charges are wantonly untrue and malicious in every particular, and have not a shadow of foundation upon which to rest.

Upon entering the service of the Treasury Department in 1913, Mr. Williams told the committee, he had severed all connections with banks, railroads and other lines of business.

ITALIANS AT SICILY CHEER SOVIET RULE.

MOBS PLUNDER STORE, GENERAL STRIKE ON—GOVERNMENT TROOPS ACTIVE.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

ROME, Monday, July 14.—Strike disorders occurred at various places in Italy today.

At Lucera, eight persons were killed and thirty wounded.

Near Genoa, two anarchists were killed in a fight with carabinieri.

The engagement with the anarchists, which occurred at Sestri Ponente, four miles west of Genoa, also resulted in the arrest of four anarchists.

A general strike began at Catanzaro, Sicily. The people there marched through the streets crying "Vive soviet" and forced dealers in foodstuffs and other necessities to reduce their prices 50 per cent.

The Italian government, Premier Nitti announced in the Chamber of Deputies today, has taken ample measures to preserve order in view of the threat of a general strike throughout the country. Troops, he said, have been distributed everywhere in the country and they were provided with supplies for more than forty-eight hours in case they should be cut off from the bases.

There is no reason for a general strike in Italy, the Premier continued. The government does not wish bloodshed and will do its utmost to prevent it.

Italy is one country where a general strike should not occur, Nitti asserted; Bolshevism was an Asiatic evil which could not spread to Italy.

The government of Nitti, which took office several weeks ago, tonight received a vote of confidence in the Chamber of Deputies. The vote passed by 257 to 131.

SAFETY DEVICE FOR AIRSHIPS TO BE MADE.

INVENTOR OF DOUBLE PARACHUTE WAS AN AIR SERVICE INSPECTOR.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

WICHITA FALLS, Tex., July 10.—Plans are well advanced by W. A. Utz and associates for the construction of a plant for the manufacture of a safety appliance for airplanes.

Mr. Utz, who was formerly an inspector of airplanes for the United States air service, is the inventor of the device. He asserts that it has been put to practical test and proved successful. It is in the nature of parachutes that may be attached to airplanes. The parachute is double.

The larger of the two, which lets the passenger, or passengers, to the ground at the gentle speed of four miles an hour, is folded under the fuselage, or body of the plane, at the center of gravity. Attached to this, but folded up and packed at the tail of the plane, underneath, is a smaller parachute, the operation of which is controlled by a lever close to the pilot's hand.

In cases of fire, damage to the ship, or a fall out of control, the pilot presses this release, which permits the smaller parachute to spread. The wind blast on this parachute draws the other from its place and the bigger parachute takes the pilot, seat and all from the disabled ship.

The release of the seat, automatically, after the smaller parachute is put in operation is ingenious. The danger of a parachute not opening, common when a jump is made from a disabled plane, is eliminated and the chance of the falling ship folding the parachute is taken away by the release from the end of the tail, which is always above the nose in a fall.

To get the pilot out of the rudder's way, double rudders, such as are common on the big bombing planes, are used, and the release is made between them.

Vocational Training Funds Requests Kept Here

A meeting was called yesterday afternoon in The Times Auditorium to institute a Foundation for educational institutions here. A number of the present men and women in the field of educational and philanthropic work present and all had good words to say for the establishment of the proposed Foundation. Mr. J. Chandler called the meeting to order.

Miss Franz Hamilton of Torrey, connected for a long time with the Carnegie and Rockefeller Foundations, opened the meeting giving a brief synopsis of the work which the Foundation would do. She said that the need in her experience had been to exist in the lack of a national training, application of funds to the hands. One good thing brought out was that the Foundation would be used partly to encourage educational films to advance young minds and those more advanced. As Los Angeles is the center of 82 per cent. of the funds in the country, it would be here keep the money donated in.

Dr. Albert Shiels, City Superintendent of Schools, spoke, saying that money left to the foundation would be used for concourses, thus opening the way

POWER WIRE'S FIRE STARTER.

Residence Destroyed When Broken Wire Falls in Its Neighborhood.

An electric wire which fell from a power pole yesterday afternoon started a fire which destroyed a four-room residence at 2807 Arlington street occupied by C. R. Farrington. According to the fire department, most of the furnishings were saved. The loss is placed at $1000.

Ex-Senator Frank P. Flint added to the discussion by saying that many of the people leave sums in their wills to the old home town, and to the old home institutions, rather than to the place where they are living. He also pointed out that a person living and enjoying himself in Los Angeles owes it in a large measure to this city to leave something to its institutions in order that he shall repay for the benefits received. People like to give to the place where they are living, rather than to the place where they are not living.

Gen. M. H. Sherman, former superintendent of schools of Arizona, spoke, saying that he was in entire sympathy and co-operation with the plan as formulated.

Mrs. R. J. Burdette then offered a resolution which was duly carried, that a committee be appointed to procure the names of ten well-known men and women who would stand as sponsors for the foundation.

The meeting was then adjourned until a later date.

The plan is to make a beginning now and in the course of time build a fund to help worthy educational institutions under the oversight of a strong foundation.

Back after building roads for soldiers.

Former county engineer wears Croix de Guerre and is cited.

Wearing a Croix de Guerre on his breast and with a number of citations in his pocket, Maj. Carl Wirsching, a member of the Second Army staff, returned from overseas yesterday morning.

Maj. Wirsching was formerly engineer of the Third and Fifth divisional districts of Los Angeles county. He sailed for overseas as a captain in the Engineer Corps early in 1917. Immediately on his arrival in France he was sent to the Toul sector for duty with the First Division.

When the Yanks launched their offensive at Chateau-Thierry, in July, 1918, Maj. Wirsching was transferred to the Second Division and took part in the battle of St. Mihiel, keeping it in repairs and cleared for the advancing doughboys. Following the Chateau-Thierry drive he was sent back to the First Army and given a berth on the army staff.

During the St. Mihiel drive, in September, 1918, Maj. Wirsching was given just four days to open up the Apremont road, a task which was accomplished by his men.

SAYS MEXICO IS PROSTRATE.

Financier Calls Intervention the Only Solution.

Must Save Nation from Utter Ruin, He Declares.

"No Better Service Could be Rendered Humanity."

The United States can serve humanity in no better way than to intervene in Mexico, declared A. L. Lathrop, trustee officer of the Union Trust Company, last night, addressing the Associated Retail Creditmen of Los Angeles at their monthly dinner at the Alexandria.

Mr. Lathrop was in Mexico as general manager of the Mexican Lumber Company at Chihuahua until 1916.

"Today Mexico, the richest undeveloped section of the world," he said, "lies prostrate at the feet of the American people."

"Business men fail to leave money which they think will be handled by the government. Such men will know that any money donated to this foundation will be well expended, and by the government, the American people will be benefited."

Gen. M. H. Sherman, former superintendent of schools of Arizona, spoke, saying that he was in entire sympathy and co-operation with the plan as formulated.

SLICK CONFIDENCE MEN WITH ANCIENT "CHARITY" RUSE MAKE BIG CLEAN-UP.

The "charity game," one of the oldest confidence tricks in the bunco man's profession, netted two men $1500 yesterday, according to a report made by Clemens Schoenig, a painter, of 470 West Fifth-ninth place, to Detectives Gamash and Burgess last night. EXPEDITION FOR BIG GAME.

Supervisor to Lead Party to the Arctic for County Museum Specimens.

Los Angeles is to have the finest museum collection of Alaskan big game on the Pacific Coast, according to plans made public yesterday, when Supervisor McClellan was commissioned to go to the Arctic and secure the specimens for the County Museum of History, Science and Art.

A resolution was passed by the Board of Supervisors providing for the expedition.

Mr. McClellan was chosen to head the commission because of his knowledge of Alaska and the big game that abounds there. This puts a machinery in motion for one of the most important undertakings that has ever been attempted by the board of governors of the local museum.

The museum has long had such an expedition in mind. Arrangements have been made for some time ago. It is urged at this time that the expedition should be hurried, as the longer it is delayed the more difficult and more expensive it will become.

Mr. McClellan will leave Sunday night, he said yesterday. He will go from here to San Francisco and then on up to Seattle. Dr. Edward J. Jones will accompany him, and a taxidermist will also be along in the party. The doctor is going partly to render what medical or surgical aid may be necessary and also because of his interest in scientific matters. Ralph Edmonds, a famous Alaskan hunter, will also be one of the party.

As soon as the party arrives in Alaska, it is the plan of Mr. McClellan to secure a group of native Indians and send them out into the country ahead of the party for the purpose of running the game in. It is planned to secure specimens of mountain sheep, caribou, moose, bear and mountain goat. About two months will be needed to make the trip, Mr. McClellan says. When the game has been secured, the animals will be skinned and their hides prepared for shipment. The hides are "dried quickly," which preserves them indefinitely. They will then be shipped to this city and mounted.

When completed, it is announced, the animals will be grouped as they are seen in their native lands, and will be very lifelike. Similar animals now on exhibition at Golden Gate Park, at San Francisco, and at the Los Angeles zoo, are not to be compared with the animals that will be secured in Alaska. The expense of the expedition is to be borne by the county.

RUN FULL BLAST.BIG CATCHES OF ALBACORE
AND TUNA ARE REPORTED
AT LONG BEACH.LOCAL CORRESPONDENT.
LONG BEACH, July 15.—Cannerymen on Long Beach Harbor are running full blast, following the opening of the tuna season in earnest the last few days.Monday and Tuesday were the two biggest days of the year thus far in the fish canning industry in this city.
Fishing boats delivered more than 100 tons of fish to the cannerymen to local plants in the past forty-eight hours.Tuna have finally made their appearance in great numbers in local waters, gradually working their way up from San Diego, which reported good catches of the fish two weeks ago.GARAGE MEN PICNIC.

Exchange Director Advocates Plan for Los Angeles Harbor.LOCAL CORRESPONDENT.
LOS ANGELES HARBOR, July
15.—Harris Wienstock, director of the State Fish Exchange, has proposed a plan for fixing the price of fish at this port that seems acceptable to fishermen and dealers alike.
The plan is similar to that in operation by the crab fishermen at San Francisco and the strawberry growers over the State.Mr. Wienstock proposes to appoint a board representing the fishermen and dealers to fix the price

WHAT'S DOING TODAY.

Chamber of Commerce luncheon at the Alhambra Hotel at 12:15 p.m. Dr. C. H. Brown, president, presiding. Speakers: J. A. Sullivan, president of the Chamber of Commerce; J. A. Sullivan, president of the Chamber of Commerce; J. A. Sullivan, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

THE CITY AND ENVIRONS.

For Semi-Centennials. The Half-Centennial Association announces extra features for the meeting to be held at 200 Blanchard Hall, lecture room, tomorrow night.

By Patriotic Mothers. A musical entertainment will be given in the auditorium of the Broadway Department Store tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. The entire proceeds will be used by the mothers for returned service men and families.

California Society Change. The California Society will meet next Monday and thereafter at the third Monday of each month at the California Club, 215 South Figueroa street. It had been meeting at First street and Broadway on the third Monday of each month. A good program with dancing and refreshments will be featured.

Of Goodyear's Faith. The Commercial Board of Los Angeles will meet at the Clark Hotel today noon. The principal speaker will be H. S. Quine, in charge of the advertising department of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company. Mr. Quine will lay stress upon the faith of his people in the great industrial future of Los Angeles, which prompts them to launch a $20,000,000 enterprise in this city. There will be other speakers and entertainment. W. R. Kilgore will be chairman.

Wisconsin Summer Picnic. All who ever lived in Wisconsin and their friends are invited to attend the annual summer picnic of the Wisconsin State Association of Los Angeles County next Saturday at Sycamore Grove. The president, Edgar L. Thompson, will have charge of the program which will follow the lunch at about 2 p.m. Prof. Frank M. Porter of the Wisconsin University, now at the U.S.C. law school; Mrs. Marie R. Town, president of the Badger Club, and others will speak. A quartette of soldiers just from France will sing.

City Club Speaker. The City Club, at its noon luncheon today, will be addressed by Dr. A. W. Clark, who was a Red Cross officer in Europe. His work took him to Berlin during the Spartacist riots, and later to the Rhine province. His talk will be along the line of what he observed in Germany as to her attitude regarding the peace treaty. His opinion is that she is insistent and unrepentant, and not sincere in signing the treaty. The Saturday luncheon of the City Club will be addressed by Dr. A. W. Clark, professor of commerce and economics in the University of Wisconsin, and chairman of the board of directors of one of the large banks of Madison, Wis., who will speak on some of the financial aspects and problems of reconstruction.

WOULD ESTOP CITY.

Change Would be Harmful. The Huntington Land and Improvement Company, in an injunction suit filed yesterday against the city of Los Angeles asking that the defendant be enjoined from interfering with the present grade of Huntington drive north or carrying out the contract to change the grade in front of lots they own in the Pasadena Villa tract.

The company claims that if the change is made, the storm waters will form a dam, cutting off access to their property. The order to show cause was made returnable by Acting Presiding Judge Works before Judge Jackson next Thursday.

THE YOUNG LADY ACROSS THE WAY

The young lady across the way was the one who was caught in a thrift and for her part she was careful to use up all her 3-cent postage stamps before July 1 even though she had to write a lot of unnecessary letters to do it.

UNION AGITATOR IS WITNESS FOR I.W.W. ADMITS FRIENDSHIP FOR HAYWOOD IN TESTIMONY AT BISBEE HEARING.

(BY A. P. MORT WIRE.) DOUGLAS (ARIZ.) July 15.—The examination of Harry Walters, charged with kidnapping in connection with the Bisbee deportation of July 12, 1917, was not resumed today because of the nonarrival of witnesses called from Miami and Ray, who are expected here tomorrow. The next docket in Justice Jackson's court, the case of H. E. Wooten, charged with kidnapping, was called. The complaint in this case was sworn to by Fred W. Brown, of Bisbee, who testified the defendant, on the day of the deportation, was armed with a 30-30 rifle and forced him to fall into line along with the others deported on that day.

The complaining witness also testified that on the morning of July 12, 1917, he saw John C. Greenway, general manager of the Calumet and Arizona Mining Company, together with Dr. C. E. Bledsoe, chief surgeon for the company, armed with rifles and in the guard line.

Brown testified further that the guards had been ordered to shoot and it was for that reason that he entered the box cars at Warren, from which place the men were carried to Columbus, N. M.

Brown, on redirect examination, said he came to Bisbee as an organizer for the Industrial Federation of Labor, and that on the morning of the deportation, after he had been ordered into line and placed in the ball park at Warren with the balance of the deportees, he saw M. J. Cunningham, cashier of the Bank of Bisbee, and Gerald Sherman, mine superintendent of the Copper Queen properties, standing in front of him and both of them were armed.

HIBERNIANS MEET.

Fifty-First Annual Convention Opens with High Mass.

(BY A. P. MORT WIRE.) SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—The celebration of solemn high mass in St. Mary's Cathedral opened the fifty-first annual convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in the United States and Canada here today. Archbishop Hanna was the celebrant in the mass, which was a notable array of clergy from all parts of the United States and Canada.

Officers in charge of the convention announced that 2000 delegates and at least 10,000 other visitors are expected before the convention adjourns on Saturday. Special arrangements are being made for the reception of Eamon de Valera, president of the "Irish republic," who is due Thursday evening.

The Women's Auxiliary of the order is in convention also.

The convention was opened by Bishop Michael J. O'Gallagher of Detroit. Mayor Ralph of San Francisco made an address of welcome. Among those who addressed the delegates was the Rev. Father Joseph McLaughlin of Philadelphia, National Grand President of the order, and Mrs. Mary P. McWhorter of Philadelphia, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary. Mrs. McWhorter read a letter from Cardinal O'Connell of Boston, conveying his wishes for the success of the convention.

Business sessions of the convention will commence tomorrow with the report of the Credentials Committee. An informal reception will be the feature tonight.

Greetings to the delegates came in messages from United States Senator Phelan in Washington and Archbishop O'Connell in Boston, and a committee was appointed today to draw a message to Pope Benedict XV at Rome, asking his blessing on the work of the convention.

Archbishop Hanna, in his sermon at a high mass in St. Mary's Cathedral, reviewed the progress of Ireland's efforts for freedom from English rule.

GIVES WOMAN DECREE. COURT RESENTS NOTE.

Mrs. Ottilia Dahmen was granted a divorce from E. J. Dahmen by Judge Taft yesterday. The defendant was enjoined from interfering with the present grade of Huntington drive north or carrying out the contract to change the grade in front of lots they own in the Pasadena Villa tract.

The company claims that if the change is made, the storm waters will form a dam, cutting off access to their property. The order to show cause was made returnable by Acting Presiding Judge Works before Judge Jackson next Thursday.

FIND MISSING GIRL.

Santa Monica Officers Locate Young Miss in Riverside.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.) SANTA MONICA, July 15.—Mrs. Leah England, 15 year old daughter of Mrs. Ruth England of Villa City, Venice, who disappeared May 25 from a concession in which she was employed, has been found, according to a letter received from Deputy Chief E. S. Delane of Riverside, by Chief of Police F. W. Ferguson. The local officers have been searching the country for the girl for the last six weeks. Delane says the girl is staying in Riverside at the home of her grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Dodson, of 744 West Eighth street, is said that the girl declares she has been traveling round the country from San Francisco to Arizona with two other girls.

Officers recall that the girl was seen talking seriously with a man and a woman about 11:30 of the night she disappeared, and a State-wide search was instigated.

I believe that the girl was led away from here by vicious agencies, said Chief Ferguson today. "I will bring the girl back here if only to learn from her who urged her to leave home. There are a few persons here that I'm going to get rid of."

To Ladies Who Are Stout

Fat is fatal to health and beauty. Reduce weight sensibly and easily; improve your health and figure. Avoid heart trouble, wrinkles, nervousness, weakness, etc., besides embarrassment, due to obesity.

Look and feel younger. Walk sprightly. Let your eyes sparkle with new fervor. Surprise and delight your friends. Be a girl again!

Go to the drugist and get oil of koein capsules and follow the directions of the wonderfully fine fat reduction system. Reduce ten to sixty pounds. Eat all you need (including some candy, if desired) while reducing.

Don't bother about going through tiresome exercises or following severe rules of starvation diet. Why not become slender without so much work, worry and self-denial?—Advertisement.

To Ward Off Summer Complexion Ills

To keep the face smooth, white and beautiful all summer, there's nothing quite so good as ordinary mercurized wax. Discolored or freckled skin, so common at this season, is gently, gradually absorbed by the wax and replaced by the newer, finer skin. The wax, which is applied at bedtime and washed off morning, cleanses, powders and softens the face. It is apt to appear more conspicuous than usual these days of excessive perspiration. Just get an ounce of mercurized wax at any drug store and use it like cold cream. This will help any skin at once and in a week or so the complexion will look remarkably clear, young and healthy.

SANTA MONICA, July 15.—Mrs. Leah England, 15 year old daughter of Mrs. Ruth England of Villa City, Venice, who disappeared May 25 from a concession in which she was employed, has been found, according to a letter received from Deputy Chief E. S. Delane of Riverside, by Chief of Police F. W. Ferguson. The local officers have been searching the country for the girl for the last six weeks. Delane says the girl is staying in Riverside at the home of her grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Dodson, of 744 West Eighth street, is said that the girl declares she has been traveling round the country from San Francisco to Arizona with two other girls.

Officers recall that the girl was seen talking seriously with a man and a woman about 11:30 of the night she disappeared, and a State-wide search was instigated.

I believe that the girl was led away from here by vicious agencies, said Chief Ferguson today. "I will bring the girl back here if only to learn from her who urged her to leave home. There are a few persons here that I'm going to get rid of."

HIS FRIENDS ALL TALKING ABOUT IT Sacramento Man Tells of Big Change.

Improvement Has Been Wonderful. Never Felt Better in Life, He Says.

"Every time I meet any of my friends now, they have something to say about how well I am looking of late, and it just does my heart good to tell them how completely Tanlac has overcome my troubles," said J. G. Farla, who lives at 1105 O street, Sacramento, the other day. "My kidneys went back on me about a year ago," he continued, "and although I have been taking medicine and treatment ever since, I gradually got worse right along until I got hold of this Tanlac. For the past few months, my condition has been much worse than it ever was, and I had a dull, heavy pain in the small of my back all the time. I had no appetite to speak of, and when I did get a little hungry occasionally, I would eat just a bite or two and that would satisfy me. I work at night, and often when I would finish my work I would be so completely worn out and nervous I couldn't sleep more than a couple of hours during the day. I was badly constipated all the time, and suffered a lot from headaches."

"I heard about this Tanlac and made up my mind to give it a trial, and it certainly has done the work for me. Why, I honestly never felt better in all my life than I do now. I have completely regained my health. That awful pain in the small of my back is a thing of the past, and my nerves are in such good condition that I sleep like a log from the time I go to bed until time for me to get up and go to work. I have such a good appetite that I just want to eat all the time, and my food is agreeing with me. I have gained a good deal in weight, and all my strength has come back to me. I haven't had one of those terrible headaches since I finished my first bottle of Tanlac, and am entirely free from constipation. Yes, sir, Tanlac is a mighty fine medicine, and you will have to go a long way to find its equal."

Tanlac is sold in Los Angeles, Pasadena and San Diego by the Owl Drug Company.—Advertisement.

MEET'S VANGUARD NEARLY HERE.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

Saturday, are already on their way from various Atlantic ports. One report is that the cruiser Chicago, flagship of division two, cruiser squadron, has gone through the Panama canal and is steaming up the west coast.

Other vessels of the fleet that are on the way are the hospital ship Mercy, auxiliary cruiser Buffalo, supply ship Glacier, supply ship Solace, fleet tanker Cuyana and the collier Vestal and Maumee. All are expected to arrive at San Diego by August 1.

Rear-Admiral Fullam, prior to his departure for Mare Island today on the cruiser Minneapolis, said that he understood the submarine squadrons were also on the way here from the Atlantic.

It is expected here that about seventy ships will be mobilized here before the arrival of the main battle fleet. Preparations are being made to provide berthing and anchorage room for these vessels.

The collier Brutus, sent down the Pacific Coast to meet the fleet, will reach Manzanillo today, according to radio reports.

SCOTT IS NAMED NEW FIRE CHIEF

Succeeds Archie J. Eley, Who Retires on Pension.

Appointee is Young Man and has a Fine Record.

Mayor Says He Expects Him to Increase Efficiency.

R. J. Scott, with the civil service rank of captain in the fire department, and who has been acting as chief of district No. 1, will be appointed Fire Chief by Mayor Snyder, today, to fill the vacancy created by the retirement of Archie J. Eley on a pension.

Fire Chief Scott will assume his new duties at 10 a. m. Friday, the time having been selected as it is the beginning of the municipal month.

"I have carefully studied the general situation, and I am convinced that what it ought to be. He is popular in the department, and I am certain will receive the loyal support of all its members," said Mayor Snyder, yesterday.

"He is a vigorous man; has made a close study of fire fighting and protective methods, and he is a man with ideas. I have studied him closely, and I believe he has the right kind of stuff in him to make the fire department of Los Angeles what it ought to be. He is popular in the department, and I am certain will receive the loyal support of all its members," said Mayor Snyder, yesterday.

The new Fire Chief is a native of Minneapolis, Minn., and is 35 years of age. He resides with his mother and sister at 2511 East Third street, and is unmarried. He was appointed a fireman, July 22, 1905, and promoted to driver, August 10, 1906. He was made a captain, October 22.

WHAT HIT WITH MORTAR MEANS.

Guns Shoot Nearly Straight up, Dropping Shell on Target from Sky.

The man who has to hit something with a big mortar has the following problem:

A projectile weighing about 1000 pounds has to be fired almost straight up into the air in such a way that, after attaining a height of from three to six miles, and having been traveling a minute or two, it will drop from upper space onto a rapidly-moving object miles away from the mortar pit.

The torsion of the shell curves it off, just as a baseball curves when thrown with a twist. The wind blows the shell around. The barometric pressure plays tricks with it. Lots of things disturb it. Yet skilled artillerymen actually secure hits, and many of them, on the comparatively minute area represented by the deck of a distant vessel.

FULL STATEMENT BY LONG BEACH OFFICER.

MORE MEN INVOLVED BY HOLBROOK IN SEASIDE CITY SCANDAL.

H. M. Holbrook, Long Beach police officer, arrested on a charge of extorting $70 from J. G. Papadakis, a Los Angeles Harbor confectioner, made a complete statement to deputy District Attorney yesterday, according to a well-founded report. The statement, which is said to have been made to Deputy District Attorney Clark, is alleged to involve several other persons in the affairs that have rocked the beach town for the last few days.

A new development in the fact that Holbrook retained William M. Morse, Jr., as his attorney, instead of Phillip Swaffield, attorney for Sgt. Ralph Powell, who was jointly accused with him on the extortion charge. Though Mr. Clark declined to discuss the statement of Holbrook, which is said to be in the nature of a confession, Mr. Morse admitted that it was made. He said, however, that he was just retained on the case and was not at liberty to say what import the alleged admissions have. Mr. Morse went to Long Beach last night to confer with several persons there and to arrange a bond for his client.

NEW CASE DISMISSED.

Trial will be Only on Indictment for Murder Charge.

Justice Hinshaw yesterday dismissed the case against Harry J. New, Jr., accused of the murder on July 1 of Freda Lesser, his sweetheart. This dismissal was asked by Deputy District Attorney Hill because of an indictment returned against New for the same charge. The court had refused to dismiss the case the day before, saying that the indictment had nothing to do with the justice case.

WOMAN'S AUTO KILLS CHILD.

Boy Loses Life Within Few Feet of Home—Tragedy is Seen by Playmates.

Struck down by an automobile owned and driven by Mrs. R. Homes of 3731 Halldale avenue yesterday, Howard G. Thorne, 7 years of age, of 1148 West Thirty-seventh place, was instantly killed. The accident, which took place just two doors from the child's home, was witnessed by several of the little fellow's playmates. The body was removed to the undertaking establishment of Moses & Moses.

According to Police Detective Harry Henderson of the University Police district, the boy had been riding on the rear of an ice wagon and sprang from it in front of the automobile. Mrs. Homes was not held by the authorities.

WHY HOUSEWIVES SHOULD CAN FRUIT.

The following very good reasons for canning fruit this season even more than a year ago when the war was still on is given The Times Domestic Page by the San Seelig Company, in the following suggestions:

"A year ago, the papers contained much reading relative to why housewives should can fruit and vegetables, the principal reason being advanced at that time that it was patriotic to do so.

"This year, putting up canned fruit will save the consumer a great deal of money. We are of the opinion that canned fruit, which is now being packed, will sell for the highest prices that this country has ever seen since the canning industry first started. The reason for this is very evident; a tremendous export demand has developed for all canned fruit. It seems that the European countries who have so long been out of sweets will pay almost any price for this class of merchandise and in a way this is bound to benefit the United States and especially California.

"As the growers are getting the highest prices for their crops of fresh fruit, such as cherries, apricots, peaches and pears, our advice would be to can everything possible."

THE TIMES DOMESTIC PAGE

Being an intimate talk about things pertaining to the high cost of living together with some helpful hints, and straight from the shoulder news of things as they are and as they ought to be.

OUR PRIZE-WINNING MENUS.

It seems as though the entire Times family of readers is intent upon winning one of the weekly prizes for recipe or menu. Last week the editor of the creative geniuses who are domestic-page "stars" was directed toward the production of a model number-eight dinner in quantity sufficient for five persons, in quality fit for a doughboy and in price within range of the long-distance runs.

The results have been very interesting and decidedly prolific. Really, if this sort of thing keeps up we will have to open a cafeteria and hire a private secretary, but the contest has been decidedly worth while, for it resulted in some combinations which may be tried with gastronomic safety and financial assurance. It was a hard job to pick the winners, but, taking everything into consideration—cost, simplicity, ease of preparation, availability of ingredients and other elements—the scores of menus submitted have been as scientifically graded as may be.

And here are the results:

First prize, $1, submitted by Mrs. M. W. White, 808 S. Normandie, Cal.
Second prize, $1, submitted by Mrs. M. W. White, 808 S. Normandie, Cal.

over night. Strain and add juice of lemon.

Soda or White Rock Lemonade. Prepare lemonade to taste, cool and add soda, stir thoroughly and drink while effervescent.

Pineapple Lemonade. 1/2 cup grated pineapple or juice. Juice one lemon. 2 tablespoons sugar. 1/2 cup boiling water.

1 cup ice-cold water. 1. Mix pineapple, lemon juice and sugar, and add the boiling water. Cool, add ice-cold water, strain and serve. Canned pineapple may be used.

Egg Lemonade. 1 egg. 2 tablespoons sugar. 2 tablespoons lemon juice. 1 cup cold water.

Beat the egg thoroughly, add sugar and lemon juice; pour in gradually the water, stir until smooth and well mixed. Strain and serve. Two tablespoons of sherry or port wine may be added if so ordered.

Orangeade. 1 cup orange. 1/2 cup orange juice. 2 tablespoons sugar. 1/2 cup boiling water.

Prepare as for lemonade. If orange is not very acid, add lemon juice. Should you desire to serve a larger quantity try.

Pineapple Temperance Punch. Grate one fresh pineapple or use a quart can of the preserved grated pineapple. Add to it one quart of any fruit syrup preferred, berries, red raspberries—all are appetizing. Also the juice from half a dozen lemons and orange or the fruit itself sliced very thin. Over this pour a hot syrup made by allowing a quart of water to a pound of sugar, increasing the sugar if the fruit juice was very acid, like fresh strawberries. Let this stand for three hours or longer so that all the flavors will be thoroughly blended, then add half a gallon of ice water and pour over a block of ice in the punch bowl.

So many fine salad recipes were received in response to The Times' contest last week that it was impossible to print but a few of them. However, the judges have gone through the stack again and here are a few more which they say are of undoubted merit.

BEET SALAD, IRISH WAY. Slice a young beet and have well boiled till tender and cooled. Mix one tablespoonful of vinegar, one of oil and one of sugar, add salt to taste; pour over beet. Chop the beet into small pieces, add one cup of water and pour over a block of ice in the punch bowl.

BEET SALAD. Cook one-half dozen small beets; remove skin and cut into cubes; add one cup pear sauce, one cup vinegar, one cup oil and three green onions, sliced thin. Season with salt and pepper. Serve on lettuce leaves; garnish with sliced cucumbers and tomatoes. Submitted by Mrs. S. J. Johnson, 1701 South Grand avenue, Los Angeles.

POTATO SALAD. Boil three or four medium-sized potatoes in skins until done. Also boil at least two eggs. Cut the potatoes and eggs into small cubes and mix with one cup of cold water and one cup of vinegar, one of oil and one of sugar, add salt to taste; pour over beet. Chop the beet into small pieces, add one cup of water and pour over a block of ice in the punch bowl.

BEAN SALAD. Two cups stewed or baked beans—Add 1 cup celery. 1 cup onion. 1 cup tomato. 1 cup cucumber. 1 cup carrot. 1 cup lettuce. 1 cup oil. 1 cup vinegar. 1 cup sugar. 1 cup salt. 1 cup pepper. 1 cup mustard. 1 cup ketchup. 1 cup Worcestershire sauce. 1 cup catsup. 1 cup mayonnaise. 1 cup dressing. 1 cup sauce. 1 cup gravy. 1 cup soup. 1 cup broth. 1 cup milk. 1 cup cream. 1 cup butter. 1 cup lard. 1 cup shortening. 1 cup flour. 1 cup cornstarch. 1 cup starch. 1 cup sugar. 1 cup honey. 1 cup molasses. 1 cup syrup. 1 cup jam. 1 cup jelly. 1 cup marmalade. 1 cup preserves. 1 cup fruit. 1 cup vegetables. 1 cup nuts. 1 cup seeds. 1 cup herbs. 1 cup spices. 1 cup condiments. 1 cup seasonings. 1 cup flavorings. 1 cup essences. 1 cup extracts. 1 cup oils. 1 cup vinegars. 1 cup salts. 1 cup sugars. 1 cup BOLD THIEVES

STEAL HOUSE.

Owner Plaintively Remarks

that They Kindly Left

the Lot Intact

Stealing a house is the newest form of depredation in Long Beach. E. L. Jones of

1940 Orange avenue, that city, yesterday informed the police that somebody had taken away a house near

Temple avenue and Broadway owned by his sister. He said the lot seemed to be left intact.

Officers who investigated

said the tracks left indicated that the thieves had loaded

the house on heavy trucks and carted it away. Mr. Jones says he will swear out a warrant against anybody caught with the purloined house, but he much fears it has been disguised so he will be unable to recognize it.

"How d'You Know They

Triangle Case Brings Out an Interesting Query.

Does a woman know her own husband's shoes?

This question arose yesterday in Justice Palmer's court when the case of Gray T. Sampson, a Pasadena music teacher, and Mrs. Lena Tut-hill, a former pupil of Sampson, jointly accused of a statutory charge, was called.

Mrs. Sampson testified that when she, Capt. J. D. Hunter, chief investigator of the District Attorney's office, and two other detectives, called at Mrs. Tuthill's apartments on West Third street, she found two pairs of her husband's shoes. Her husband, it was shown, had jumped out of a third-story window, landed in a tree and slid to the sidewalk.

"How do you know they belonged to Mr. Sampson?" asked John L.

Richardson, representing the defendants.

"I know them just like I know everything he wears," she replied.

"One pair of oxfords he wore when he called on me at the hospital where I am a nurse, and I have seen where the other pair on him many times."

The case was continued to July

29, when Deputy District Attorney

Hill said Ralph Tuthill, a yeoman

in the navy, now at Hampton Roads,

Va., husband of one defendant, will be in court.

Mr. Hill raised a point that a page

We Don't Eat

Just For Fun

We eat that our bodies may be su-tained and our health preserved.

The more food value we can get in what we eat the better our bodies are nourished.

Bread is the universal food staple,

and yet there is a possible variation of 5, 10, 15 and 20 per cent and more in the food value of different loaves of bread of the same size.

Even the same flour and ingredients may be used, and a wide variation of food value still exist.

It is only by intensive laboratory tests that the scientific method of producing maximum food value from a given quantity of flour can be determined.

DON'T SLINK!

Woe be unto the teller or the financier or institution that, for some temporary advantage, sides in with Bolshevism now! A day of reckoning will surely come to them.

There is a crisis in Los Angeles. Choose ye, THIS DAY, gentlemen, whom ye will serve, Liberty or Despotism. This call goes out to workers and managers, to the employer and the employed, to the average man and the financial backer, to the humble and the powerful. Declare yourselves!

The laboring man who has no spirit and the financier who seeks to sink and dodge, will alike be ashamed of themselves after the struggle is over. There can be but one end to it in free Los Angeles—Liberty will win. Cheers for the brave, loyal, independent men and women who have dared all assaults and have gone to work. Nothing but contempt for the man of wealth and power who shirks his responsibilities and evades his obligations to the community and refuses to carry his share of the load or to partake of the common risk!

A REAL CREATION.
Really, the creation was what Eve wore after she had junked her fig-leaf costume.

LEARNING TO BLEAT.
In one of the Stock Exchange manuals the credit rating on many of the railway and industrial securities is given as "Baa." This sounds like the noise made by the lambs in Wall street as shearing time approaches.

SEEKING HARMONY.
People read with interest the announcement that the Board of Education is about to buy $50,000 worth of pianos. There was a feeling that the student mind had reached that plane wherein the piano would cease to soothe and satisfy. It was thought that the average schoolroom could not be content with anything short of a jazz band.

IRON IN THE FIRE.
The packers do not seem content to stick to their mutton. They are getting so that they deal in everything from Congressmen to collar buttons. In some lines they have improved the quality, increased the quantity and reduced the price, but these are not always the purposes behind their enterprise. More often it is big business and big profits, and their invasion of so many avenues of commercial and industrial adventure may become dangerous.

ONE-CENT A POUND.
Congressman Kettner is still pushing his bill to impose an import tax of one cent a pound on deciduous fruits. Whether it be a Republican Congress or a Democratic Congress it is all the same to this indefatigable Representative—he never lets go. The bill which he has presented to the present Congress is identical with one he introduced in the first session of the Sixty-fourth Congress, H. R. 4644. It is a just measure, and some day Mr. Kettner and the rest of us Southern Californians will have the joy of seeing it the law of the land and the protection of a grand industry.

NOT SO TOUGH.
At first blush this seems like a pretty tough county, with everybody quitting his job and the price of ham and eggs so high that one ought to be a diamond cutter to do the family carving. But, after all, when you look over the map of the world and read about some of the troubles in other lands good old America seems like a little bit of heaven, after all. Practically everything to be wished for is still obtainable in this country if one has the price—except a Scotch highball. Likewise, any man who really wants to work can have a job and raise a family in reasonable safety. Law and order prevail to a respectable degree and the government at Washington still lives. We should worry.

WHAT IS OUR DUTY?
One intention of the Monroe Doctrine was and is to prevent Europeans from disturbing the peace of the New World, but would it be departing from the spirit of that doctrine if it were interpreted and applied in such a manner as to prevent a gang of Mexican bandits from murdering the citizens of European countries and of the United States? Business, industry, religion, society and government are all deep in the mire in Mexico, and the last seven years have shown that there is not a hand in that so-called republic strong enough to liberate the people. Sooner or later normal conditions must be established in Mexico. The United States government is within its rights when it insists that Europe shall not encroach upon any people upon this continent; but if the United States fails to restore and maintain peace in Mexico, if this government is unwilling or unable to stop the slaughter by Mexicans of European citizens south of the border, what right has the United States government to tell any European government that it shall not step in to protect its own?

MORE MILLIONS IN.

men willingness to take into partnership the powerful eastern financiers who have, through outright cash purchase, just come into possession of a considerable portion of the stock of the Union Oil Company of California, the stockholders of that company have shown themselves to be fully aware of the great advantages that are offered through consolidation with banking interests of sufficient magnitude to give the Union an outlet into the world's markets.

This substantially is the object which prompted some of the most influential stockholders to part with a portion of their holdings in the Union to Messrs. Charles H. Sabie, president of the Guaranty Trust Company of New York; Percy Rockefeller and Henry Lockhart, Jr. To put it concisely, they realized that the Union Oil Company, in order to reach its full growth, must expand far beyond a purely domestic market—it must push its California, Wyoming, Texas and Mexican product into the world's markets in competition with the Standard, Dutch Shell and British companies—and to do this properly and with an assurance that such an ambitious project would result profitably they must reinforce their present position with capital brought from sources other than California.

Oil, like any other commodity, to find a wide and dependable market, must have banking facilities arranged in advance of its reaching that market. This is especially so of the international markets. Europe, South America and the Orient demand a much longer extension of credit than the average American business enterprise is prepared to grant. Only those whose operations are entrenched behind unlimited financial backing can hope to figure to any large extent in foreign markets. This weakness, as a matter of fact, has proved a serious stumbling block to many American enterprises ambitious to secure a firm foothold in the markets overseas.

Fortunately for the Union Oil Company and for California in general, the new interests in the Union are prepared to guarantee a financial arrangement. Moreover, they have impressed the present management of the Union—an organization which has been handled with notable capability—that they not only are earnest in their desire to put the company in a commanding position as against any and all of its formidable business rivals, but they have the knowledge of the international markets, the experience necessary to successfully market oil and the organized financial connections to bring their plans into fulfillment.

In paving the way for their preliminary plan—acquiring a sufficient amount of Union Oil stock to make their interest worth while—the New York capitalists came prepared to pay spot cash for the shares. This on its face convinced the Union Oil stockholders of their earnestness and they, in turn, have been quick to lend cooperation. Those of the stockholders who have expressed themselves on the merits of the transaction are convinced that the new arrangement promises distinct advantage to the company and forebodes developments in California that in time will bring widespread benefits.

STOP THE LEAKS.

There were no more "cost-plus" contracts let by the Federal government when the Republican party assumes control of both legislative and executive departments. They would all be cancelled this week if the Republican majority in Congress could have its way. Maj. Gen. Goethals, builder of the Panama Canal, expressed his opinion about them when testifying before a Senate committee that is investigating War Department purchases. "Under this system," said Gen. Goethals, "the manufacturer was only interested in his 10 per cent. profit and the cost was permitted to take care of itself. His profit was greater when the cost was greater, and it was a very extravagant system."

Gen. Goethals's testimony bared the wastage of hundreds of millions of dollars in War Department contracts, including those for the navy. In the whole history of modern finance there have probably never been such unfavorable contracts made by a government. Imagine letting a contract on a set of prepared specifications, without any cost limit, and paying the contractor 10 per cent. of the cost as his profit!

On a ship that cost $200,000 the contractor received $20,000; but if he paid enough for material and labor to run that cost up to $400,000 he received $40,000 for his profit. Is it any wonder that work lagged and the cost of material going into government contracts jumped over the moon? If the builder contracted for the steel for the vessel at $100,000 he made $10,000 on it; if he gave the steel manufacturer $150,000 for the same material he cleared $15,000. That "cost-plus" form of contract will go down in history as an awful example of Democratic waste and inefficiency.

Stopping the "cost-plus" contracts is only one of many economies which the Republican majority in Congress is seeking to effect. A House committee investigation has revealed that the quartermaster's department has been holding more than 300,000,000 pounds of ham and bacon in storage, permitting the meat to deteriorate, while the price of pork is the highest in the history of the country.

Reports from Washington are to the effect that the heads of a number of government departments are deriding the efforts of the Republican majority to reduce the cost of government. They say that the reduction of $1,500,000,000 is mostly on paper because the departments will find a way to circumvent it. To the Democratic mind it is inconceivable that the public should be interested in what becomes of the tax money.

It is to be hoped that the country will take sufficient interest to limit the Democrats to two fat years of war contracts and war supplies. It is doubtful if the commerce and industry of the country could survive a continuation of present extravagance for five years longer. The Times has already pointed out that the Democrats spent more billions in the last twelve months than the entire government expenditures from the signing of the Constitution to the outbreak of the present war. Unless some of those leaks are mended the ship is doomed to foundry.

A PROPHET WITHOUT HONOR.

Now it came to pass in the latter days that the people in the Happy Valley were stirred by a desire for the Better Life. For their counselors had filled them with the High Ideal, speaking to them and saying: "It is not enough that from our abundance we now minister to the wants of all mankind. We must henceforth so direct our goings that all nations shall honor us, not for what we give, but for what we are."

These words pleased the people mightily, so that they clothed their counselors with supreme authority to regulate the private lives of all citizens for the promotion of civic righteousness. Wherefore the counselors worked ceaselessly to bring about the Sinless State demanded by all good men and women. Nevertheless they discovered as their tasks increased how much alive was still the Old Adam, even among a people banded together to abolish temptation.

For, behold! every new law and ordinance, decree, restriction and penalty brought ever to light fresh evils as often the new evils were more perilous to the State than were the old ones. Yet the work went diligently forward. Printing presses ran day and night to circulate among the people pamphlets and circulars filled with advice and warning. Amusement theaters were turned into moral lesson houses. Laughter was licensed in restricted districts, music divorced from secular paganism, dancing confined to the very old and the very young.

Yet, in spite of all efforts, every newly-enforced virtue begat some newly-acquired vice and the people were bewildered by the number of the ordinances.

Yet, in attempting to keep strictly the letter of the law passed yesterday they found themselves unconsciously breaking a decree of the day before.

Also, instead of goodness being made more easy, every day it became more difficult. In time so many officers were required to take care of the lawbreakers that there were not sufficient laborers left to look after the harvest and production languished. So the people murmured against the good counselors they had set up.

Now it chanced that in the great mountains, over against the Western Sea, there dwelt at that time a famous prophet. Very learned was he, filled with the lore of the ages. Long time had he lived with nature and studied the beginning of things.

From the cities many had taken pilgrimages to his cave; nor had he ever failed to solve any problem presented for his judgment. Therefore in their trouble the people bethought them of the mountain prophet and said: "We will call him from his solitude and he will from his knowledge tell us wherein we have failed to find the Better Life."

Very patiently did the aged prophet listen to the troubles told him by the envoys sent by the people to bring him before the council chamber. But when they sought to whirl him back to the city in their lightning airship he would not. He preferred to take his oaken staff and on foot to trudge the long pilgrimage. Yet he arrived at the council chamber with the lawmakers were still discussing the same ordinance that had puzzled them when the envoys departed. So the prophet perceived that he had lost no time on the road.

Travel-stained and dusty from the long journey the prophet addressed the assembled counselors, and said: "Ye have sought to purge your house and ye have only buried it in litter and rubbish. Goodness should wear a pleasant countenance and ye have made it harsh and forbidding. Now, therefore, take all your laws and ordinances and carry them into the wilderness and there apply to them a torch. And in the burning of them ye will perceive volumes of smoke, but no flame."

"In their stead I will give to you one simple rule and that one simple rule will effect what your manifold laws have failed to bring about. Let each one of you in his own hand write this rule and follow it strictly for one whole year and let every other law be abrogated in its favor."

"And I say unto you that under this one rule ye shall become not only the best and most righteous people on the face of the earth, but the happiest and most prosperous." Thereupon the counselors rejoiced and commanded the prophet to set down this one complete law and they would enforce it to the smallest letter. So upon a piece of wrapping paper in blue chalk the old prophet scribbled a few words and handed it to the head of the council. And he read it aloud to all the people.

But on hearing the words that the prophet had written to regulate the million conflicting relations between man and man the people cried out that a great hoax had been perpetrated against the majesty of the nation. They drove the prophet back to the mountains with scorn and abuse, and the scrap of paper on the floor of the council chamber. And it burnt with a clear flame and there was no smoke.

Then they held a mighty recall election to punish the counselors who had called the prophet from the mountains and they were all retired to private life.

Because the words the prophet had written on the scrap of paper were two thousand years old. Do ye therefore unto others as ye would others should do unto you."

So the prophet returned to his home in the great mountains. And as he read the heavens and the things that they foretold his heart was glad with the glory of hope. For, behold! there were more stars in the skies than all the ordinances that could ever be written into the statute books of men. And he knew that God made the stars and this earth was one of the least of them.

ASSUMING THE RESPONSIBILITY.

One of the strongest evidences of Germany's deep-rooted conviction as to "the divine right of kings" is to be noted in the offer of several high officials of that country to assume responsibility for the ex-Kaiser's actions. Looked at from a standpoint of filial duty, it is not so surprising that Wilhelm's sons should have "placed themselves at the disposal of the King of Great Britain, in place of their imperial father, in order, by their sacrifice, to spare him degradation," but that Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg should express a desire to actually stand trial for the former Emperor is a matter for interesting speculation. Von Hindenburg, former chief of the German staff, boldly declares that he is responsible for the acts of the German main headquarters since August, 1916, and adds: "All proclamations and orders of His Majesty, the Emperor and King, concerning the waging of warfare, were issued upon my advice and upon my responsibility."

However, the point is this: "His Majesty, the Emperor and King," being the acknowledged head of the German nation, was certainly not compelled to take the advice of the men who proposed to visit such destruction upon the world. The fact that he did heed this advice is sufficient evidence of his guilt. The ex-Kaiser was like Macbeth, listening to the witches who cleverly suggested the crimes necessary to be done before his ambitions could be realized. It was a case of the darkness hearkening to the whisperings of the coming storm; it was like the night conspiring with the elements for an assault upon a city. No, neither Hollweg nor Hindenburg, nor the children of the Kaiser can assume, altogether, the black responsibility which rests mainly upon the shoulders of the deposed monarch. Hollweg doubtless knew well enough that the Allies would not accept his offered sacrifice and the offer was probably prompted by a desire to be honorably remembered by that portion of the German people who still reverence the name of Hohenzollern.

ON THE CORNER.

The Child, the Cone and the Accommodating Druggist.

BY MYRA NYE.

The corner druggist on Broadway has his troubles; but, compared to the corner druggist on a street car line outside Los Angeles, those troubles of his are as a Seal Beach and pile to Old Baldy. And the corner druggist doesn't make his mountain out of a mole hill, either. He makes his pile these post-war days out of metallic mercury at $1.60 a pound wholesale, or phenacetin at 65 cents an ounce, or camphor at $2.50 a pound.

But his troubles are made for him after the same old brand fresh every morning before the bank opens, when he begins to cash checks for every Mary, Jane and John, thus robbing his own till of change which in this day of change is urgently needed in his business. But accommodation is his stock in trade. Strange the variety of things expected of the corner druggist! His store is a depository of all knowledge, a depository of all checks, a dispensary of all healing, an advisory for all physical ills. While incidentally he is a chemist and pharmacist, he is mainly an expert soda slinger and sundae slusher.

Even before 9 a.m. the kiddies begin to appear for their daily portion in the shape of a "cream cone" whose putty-colored and rose goodness they imbibe not deeply, for it is not fluid enough, but well with more liquid tricks than ever before devised by woman. They shovel melting mounds of frothy fillings from cones to palate with an anticipatory tongue. It is joy. But there are coin troubles with cones nowadays—dramatic, soul-searing troubles.

"Where's your other penny, kid? You have to have another penny." The kiddie blinks up at the dispenser of all good who holds the all good, an overhauling cornucopia, tantalizingly just out of his reach. He extends his chubby fist, opens it and there in the hollow of the grime where his life line meets his head lies the little blessing and head's banner—a coin. Just one. It used to be enough before Uncle Sam had to buy ships and mules and things. Not now.

"Luxuries—yes, that's all right; but doesn't Uncle Sam know a cone is a necessity to the small boy in summer time? You can buy all the ice cream you want to without any tax pennies added if you'll take it in a box-like he has said. It is outside the store on the curb. But making change at the soda fountain is like making change at the picture-show window—sixes, eights, seventeens up to one hundred and ones. If the small boy can think in arithmetic that high.

When you come to the store with Big Sister it isn't any better. Small boy is then all ironed up and hot and starchy and clean and socks—oh, boy—socks are worse than shoes, and WITH shoes words fall. Sister hates little brother as little as possible thus adorned. He hates himself as much as possible. He sticks out his tongue at himself in the mirror back of the fountain. Sister jolts him just in time to shake down the berry mouthful dangling from the end of his tongue. It falls to the front of the blouse that mother made her iron. All right, all right—if she wants to run from again tomorrow, and no fog, either!

Her displeasure begins when she had to hunt around in her ridiculous bag for those extra pennies. To get even Little Brother sticks his long spoon with the taboo rabbit punch into the vitals of the paper cup. This cup's another idea never even in his short life. The cup for all its youth doesn't stand up against the blow even as well as Jess Willard with the youth. The runny part trickles from the marble to mingle by capillary attraction with the berry stain on his blouse. Thence trouserward and into his socks, leaving a path of joy for the flies.

But it is no path of joy to either druggist or Big Sister. She, especially, spares no pains to tell him so. When she finishes her nut-chocolate-banana-peach "special," however, Cupid Brother, as well as the druggist, gets his innings.

The druggist answers the phone to hear: "What time does the 10 o'clock car go?"

"Ten o'clock," he answers gravely. "What time does the 9 o'clock go?"

"Nine o'clock," he answers still gravely. "What time does the 8 o'clock go?"

"Eight o'clock," he answers still gravely. "What time does the 7 o'clock go?"

"Seven o'clock," he answers still gravely. "What time does the 6 o'clock go?"

"Six o'clock," he answers still gravely. "What time does the 5 o'clock go?"

"Five o'clock," he answers still gravely. "What time does the 4 o'clock go?"

"Four o'clock," he answers still gravely. "What time does the 3 o'clock go?"

"Three o'clock," he answers still gravely. "What time does the 2 o'clock go?"

"Two o'clock," he answers still gravely. "What time does the 1 o'clock go?"

"One o'clock," he answers still gravely. "What time does the 12 o'clock go?"

HEAR OIL WORKERS' CLAIMS

Twenty Thousand Employees Represented at Wage Mediation Session Here.

To consider the claims of the oil workers, a three-day session of the Hear Oil Workers' Mediation Commission was started yesterday at the Federal Building, and California prunes are still viewed as a delicacy.

Present were J. L. Spangler, president of the oil workers, and Charles T. Connell, labor commissioner, who for the past two years has been prominent in the handling of labor troubles, took part in the conference.

There were present about twenty representatives of the workers, representing 20,000 employees, and the object of the conference is to secure an adjustment of the wage scale and working conditions as determined in December, 1917, by the commission.

The conference yesterday was but preliminary, and it will be followed by an extended meeting with the oil operators, in San Francisco, when the agreement reached at the current series of meetings will be submitted to the employers for adoption or rejection.

Just what the oil and refinery workers demand under the new agreement is not officially obtainable, and will not be known until the agreement, if such there be, is submitted to the operators at the San Francisco meeting.

Although those in a position to talk as to the demands of the men will not express themselves, it is understood that they are asking for an increase in pay and a change in the present working conditions, growing out of the stimulation of the oil industry in California. The conference is being held behind closed doors, in U. S. District Judge Bledsoe's court room. The second session will begin at 10 a. m. today.

HELD ON BOND.
Accused of robbing Price Cook of $30 on July 11, Frank Cook was arraigned yesterday before Justice Hinchey, County Jail records show that the man served a sentence of 120 days in jail there, according to jail officials, under the name of Tony Marginalis. The man was held on bonds of $500 for a hearing.

By a decision of the District Court of Appeal, handed down yesterday, approving a judgment of Superior Judge Myers in sustaining the demurrer of Dolores B. de Johnson and others to a complaint of Yvonne Scott Kurtz, without leave to amend, Mrs. Kurtz loses 1000 acres of land that she alleged had been promised her by Mrs. Arcadia B. de Baker, her grandaunt, in return for the plaintiff living with Mrs. de Baker in her apartments in the Baker Block from November, 1894, until the marriage of Mrs. Kurtz, in December, 1917. The land in question, a part of the Laguna Ranch, is said to be worth $250,000, and Mrs. Kurtz sought to have specific performance of the covenants of an oral agreement between Mrs. de Baker and herself.

The record shows that in 1894, the plaintiff, then Miss Scott, resided with her parents in San Diego. Miss Scott paid a visit to her relative in the above-mentioned year, who was then in her sixty-eighth year, and living alone in an apartment in the Baker Block, her husband having died just previously. She remained with Mrs. de Baker some time, and they became much attached to each other, with the result that it is alleged an oral agreement was made by the terms of which Miss Scott was to remain with Mrs. de Baker until she married, in return for which Mrs. de Baker, it was alleged, agreed to transfer to her 1000 acres of the Laguna ranch property. She lived with her relative until December 3, 1917, when she became Mrs. Kurtz.

It was further shown that during the lifetime of Mrs. de Baker, she took Miss Scott out to Laguna ranch, in company with her agent, Charles H. Forbes, and showed her the land she intended giving her. Not only that, but Mrs. de Baker had a map made of the area by Capt. C. T. Healy, which she afterward gave to a young woman, showing by metes and bounds the lines of the possessions that were to be hers under the agreement that it is claimed was made between Mrs. de Baker and herself.

In affirming the views of the lower court, Judge James states that the plaintiff did not present sufficient facts as should call into action the unusual powers of a court of equity in determining that, as against the administrator and heirs of Arcadia B. de Baker, a trust had been impressed upon the estate; that the contract was uncertain and unfair in its terms, because the termination of the period of service to be rendered Mrs. de Baker and her heirs was not certain, and together a matter of the plaintiff's option.

THANKS BOUND UP IN REMARKABLE VOLUME.

BROADWAY EMPLOYEES STATE APPRECIATION OF HALF HOLIDAY POLICY.

A remarkable volume was presented yesterday afternoon to Arthur Letts, proprietor of the Broadway Department Store, by his 1500 employees, who gave him a resolution expressing gratitude and appreciation for his having granted them a half holiday every Saturday throughout the year.

The resolution is handsomely bound in limp leather and lettered in gold and attached, in loose leaf form, is the individual signature of each employee.

The presentation was made by Miss Arline Gridley, heading a committee of the employees composed of Johnnie Whitaker, Hazel M. Brown, Melinda Vallet, Mildred Butterfield, Lela Curran, Belle Malin, Anna Boyd, Estelle Danko and Lillian Davis. Miss Gridley said in her presentation remarks:

"Mr. Letts: The employees of this institution wish to express their appreciation of your decision to close the store a half day Saturdays the year around.

As we could not present anything to you of intrinsic value that could express our sentiment, we wish you to accept this volume of signatures of the employees of your establishment as a concrete and lasting expression of our gratitude."

The resolution follows: "At a meeting of the employees of the Broadway Department Store, on Friday, July 11, 1919, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, that inasmuch as our generous employer, Mr. Arthur Letts, has granted another great kindness to us by closing our store Saturday afternoons throughout the year, we, his employees, desire by this testimonial to express the gratitude of our whole hearts.

"Having been a leader in movements for the benefit of store employees of Los Angeles, he has again come forward and set a newer and broader standard by which, not only we, but possibly the employees of retail stores throughout the nation, will, through his example, regularly enjoy the sunshine, and by mental and physical relaxation and recuperation be better able to face the problem of life."

Mr. Letts was visibly affected and said that he knew of nothing that would give him greater pleasure than this lasting reminder of his employees' appreciation of his policy.

"Are you satisfied with the half Saturday, all the year round," asked Mr. Letts, "or would you prefer the full Saturday during July and August only?" A vociferous expression in favor of the half Saturday all the year round greeted this question.

SHORTEN PARKING TIME.
A petition was filed yesterday, asking the City Council to place Olive street, between Seventh and Eighth streets, within the district where vehicles cannot stand or exceed forty-five minutes during business hours. The Council yesterday instructed the City Attorney to prepare an ordinance to place Grand avenue, between Sixth and Seventh streets, with the same time limit for parking of autos.

POLICE PLANS ON THE SHELF.

No Betterments this Year; City Hasn't the Money.

Budget Committee and Chief to Discuss Matter Today.

Use of Municipal-Owned Autos Must Stop.

Members of the Budget Committee and Chief of Police Home will have a heart-to-heart talk at 1:30 p. m. today on the pruning of the estimates of the police department for the present fiscal year. The Budget Committee yet has the task of cutting $742,000 from the estimates to make them come within expected income of the city for the fiscal year.

Chairman Conway of the Budget Committee stated yesterday that it is probable no increase in the force of patrolmen can be made for the year, and that various proposed betterments in the service will have to be shelved. It is also proposed to eliminate the traffic horse patrol in the downtown district and have the officers make the rounds on foot. This would do away with the cost of sixteen horses and their feed for the year.

In connection with the attempts to make reductions in expenses at every possible point, Mr. Conway stated yesterday that he would insist that where the allowance is made for mileage of privately-owned vehicles in city service, daily mileage slips must be made out, showing the trips, and these must be filed with the heads of departments. He also declared that renewed efforts will be made to prosecute the owners of automobiles for private purposes.

"It has become a scandal that city-owned autos may be seen far away from their place of duty," said Mr. Conway, "and the practice of using such autos for private trips has got to be stopped."

DENY BRICKMAKERS' PLEA.
Recommendations of the Public Safety Committee were adopted by the City Council yesterday, when it voted to deny the petition of the Brick Manufacturers' Association for an amendment to the building ordinance so as to permit the construction of Class C buildings to a height of six stories. It was stated by the committee report that both the Fire Commission and the Building Inspector had objected to the proposed amendment.

MINER'S ROMANCE.

Well-to-do Man Marries Nurse who was Kind in Hospital.

Judge Willis, who had been untying the marital knot all day, was summoned to the office of Secretary Blakely yesterday and asked to tie a knot. He performed the ceremony which united Wylie R. Cozart, 44 years old, to Mrs. Helen E. Lee, 36 years old. Both parties have been previously married, their spouses having died. Mr. Cozart is a mining man with interests in Mexico, Nevada and Arizona. The marriage was born of a romance. Mr. Cozart, eighteen months ago, while cranking an automobile, suffered a broken arm. He went to the California Hospital for treatment, where Mrs. Lee was assigned as his nurse. She was faithful and considerate. Both learned the other's history, love came, then a proposal of marriage.

SOLOELLE

The Tone-Coloring Solo Player Piano.

"My Soloelle arrived. This wonderful instrument opens to all music lovers the avenues to the enjoyment of producing oneself the best music the world affords—an enjoyment hitherto forbidden to all except great pianists. With this marvelous Player I find it possible to obtain any desired effect—one has the joy and satisfaction of complete control." Miss Barrientos

We cannot too strongly emphasize the fact that there is no player piano in the same class with the Soloelle—that every other player piano lacks the means for the control of the tone quality, kind or character called "tone-color."

FIRST: The Soloelle is the only player piano that affords complete and unrestricted control of the melody and the Accompaniment separately.

SECOND: The Soloelle contains the only mechanism in existence for varying the kind, quality or character of tone (tone color) as gradations.

PASADENA, July 15.—A startling scene in the number of burglaries recently is causing some concern among Pasadena citizens. The burglars are no respecters of persons may be judged from the fact that early this morning the home of City Commissioner M. J. H. South, Mentor, was entered. The family jewels, including a diamond necklace, were missing. Evidently the burglar was frightened away by the dog.

LARGE POCKETS.

Chief Advises Large Pockets.

SANTA MONICA, July 15.—Mrs. Frank Price of Los Angeles, arrested on Pico boulevard Sunday afternoon for speeding, appeared before Chief Ferguson this morning and paid a fine of $10. Mrs. Price had ridden down to the beach dressed in her bathing suit with the intention of taking a swim and returning immediately. When she was brought to the station she soon proved that she had no pockets in her suit and was released on her promise to return this morning.

"I'm having a pocket put in my suit so there will be no delay next time," she said, smilingly.

"If there is to be any 'next time,'" said the Chief, "make that pocket to hold more than $10."

robbery took place Saturday night, when jewelry valued at the amount named, and belonging to Mrs. E. L. Munger was stolen. Mrs. Munger recently came here from the East and took a house on the heights.

The burglar's haul represented a beautiful diamond pin in a platinum setting, valued at more than $1000; a ring set with diamonds, similarly valued and a platinum bracelet set with forty-four diamonds, valued at $2000, a marquis ring set, black pearls and other articles of jewelry. No arrests have been made.

These burglaries form the climax to a series that have taken place in Pasadena in recent weeks.

NINETEEN APPLICANT FIREMEN.
Nineteen applications for positions in the Pasadena Fire Department were filed with the City Commission today. They were presented to the commission by Commissioner Harley F. Newell of the Department of Public Safety. Seven of the applicants are returned war veterans.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.

Lieut. Marcel A. H. Jousse, member of the French Advisory Commission in the United States and a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor, is a visitor in Pasadena, stopping at the Hotel Maryland. Lieut. Jousse received the Legion of Honor decoration from the hands of Marshal Joffre for his gallantry in the latter part of the war. Lieut. Jousse was in America, assisting in the training of American officers in overseas duty. Lieut. Jousse is here for a rest.

SHERMAN WASHBURN BURIED.

The funeral of Sherman Washburn, Pasadena pioneer who died Monday morning, was held this afternoon at the Masonic Temple, attended by the Masonic bodies of the city and many other friends of the city and many other friends of the city.

Mr. Washburn. The funeral services were conducted by the Pasadena lodge of Masons and the body was escorted to Mountain Cemetery by the Knights Templar.

Definite steps toward the organization in Pasadena of a post of the American Legion, the national organization of American veterans of the world war, will be taken at a meeting to be held tomorrow night at the Board of Trade rooms. At that time a temporary committee appointed some time ago will report and the league movement will be discussed by authorized organizers.

BUYS BEACH PIER.

Amusement Center of Santa Monica Buys $100,000.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.
SANTA MONICA, July 15.—Negotiations were closed here this morning for the sale of the Fraser Amusement Pier to Ernest Pickering, former business manager of the amusement center in Ocean Park. The consideration is said to have been $100,000.

A. R. Fraser founded the pier and the amusements surrounding it, after the old Ocean Park burned in 1912. The sale includes all of the amusements on the pier with the exception of the new Rosemary Theater and a two-story office building.

Mr. Pickering has announced his intention of making extensive improvements. It is thought the pier will be extended further into the ocean, and that additions will be made on both sides.

CITY OFFICIAL REPLIES TO PUBLIC UTTERANCES OF REFORMER.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.
PORTERVILLE, July 15.—Decidedly a sensational turn was given to an address delivered at a public meeting here by the Rev. Alfred Ehrigott, of the State Law Enforcement League, who is here from San Francisco, when he accused Dr. J. E. Daley, a member of the City Council, of having given him specific directions how to locate and patronize an immoral house within the city limits, and Dr. Daley responded in the same public manner by calling the speaker a liar.

As Mr. Ehrigott finished his reference to the councilman, the latter walked rapidly to the rostrum with the speaker and entered a general denial of the accusation. He said Ehrigott had visited a billiard hall owned by the doctor and that in the course of a conversation there Ehrigott was told of immoral conditions which previously had prevailed but the official declared he added that the property had been cleaned up, according to his information.

Color was given to the statement of Dr. Daley by the fact that although the address was advertised as to be on the topic "Lasciviousness in Porterville," it was devoted with this exception to generalities and a discussion of the immorality of modern women's dress. Dr. Ehrigott and his helpers worked for some weeks in Porterville but no allegation was made by him that organized vice existed in this city.

TULARE, July 15.—Bonds of the city of Tulare recently issued in the sum of $400,000 for the construction of a municipal memorial auditorium have been sold by the city officials to the Bank and Trust Company of Central California, a Fresno institution. Their bid for the bonds was on the basis of par, accrued interest and a premium of $1407.

Prompt sale of the bonds means there will be no further delay in proceeding at once to award of contract for the construction of the building.

Mr. Cook made the discovery at night, and by promptly reporting the fact doubtless saved from destruction much property and the loss of human lives.

EL CENTRO, July 15.—Sheriff Applestill has a new boarder at his summer resort in the person of Lee Clayhill, a colored gentleman, who recently arrived from Niland, where he was guest of the City Marshal for a few days pending the outcome of a slightly annoying affair in which Mr. Clayhill was alleged to be implicated.

During Mr. Clayhill's sojourn in Niland an unfortunate occurrence happened, it seems. One of the houses was entered and a quantity of clothing and food stolen. Clayhill's rabbit foot was not in proper working order and he says, as he was peacefully sleeping under a tree, some miscreant placed a quantity of the stolen articles beside him.

Because his luck charm had worn out, Clayhill will be obliged to accept the hospitality of the county for the next fifteen days.

FRUIT PACKERS TO

EXCHANGE PROPOSES TO EXERCISE SAW MILL; INCREASE CAPITAL STOCK.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.
REDLANDS, July 15.—Seven of the twelve fruit-packing associations here that are members of the California Fruit Exchange have voted in favor of the exchange buying a tract of 41,000 acres of timber near Lassen and erecting there a saw mill, also increasing the capital stock from $1,000,000 to $4,000,000. The timber will provide all the "shock" needed for orange boxes for many years, it is believed. The other five associations here will also vote in favor of the purchase. It is said the seven Riverside associations that are members of the exchange have voted for the purchase and the stockholders of the associations making up the San Antonio Fruit Growers' Exchange of Pomona have voted in favor.

The exchange will get $73,309,000 feet of lumber for box supply. Each year associations in the exchange use 15,000,000 boxes, requiring 142,000 feet of timber costing $300,000 annually.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.
VISALIA, July 15.—More than 1000 acres of the range on the ranch property of Mrs. W. L. Fisher in the Kaweah district near here was destroyed by a fire which also consumed the branding corral and other equipment on the place, together with a considerable amount of fence. Mrs. Fisher's loss is estimated by her at $10,000.

It was stated by employees of the property that a small boy playing with matches on a neighboring property started the blaze, which was controlled only after a hard fight.

A New System

New Health Food Brings Immediate Relief to Constipation and Stomach Sufferers.

Costs You Nothing Unless It Proves More Than Satisfactory in Every Way.

Cereal Meal a Most Wonderful Food Combination Working According to Nature.

(Stop Pills at Once.)

Physicians have tried for many centuries to discover a practical, harmless, natural remedy for constipation. In the place of cathartics and laxatives, Cereal Meal and laxatives give but temporary relief and bring on many disagreeable conditions—are positively injurious. Cereal Meal, the ideal Health Food, produces the exact results that physicians have longed for.

You can eat Cereal Meal daily. Usually, "Eat Your Way Back to Health." There is NO danger of overeating, and due to bowel obstruction that it will fail to promptly relieve if properly eaten—and its work is done in a natural manner—in no sense is it a cathartic or "purgative." The bowel comes as normal, while eating Cereal Meal, as at any period of life.

You may order a package of Cereal Meal, and the day you receive it, you will be entirely safe in throwing your pill-box out of the window—there is no longer any necessity. There is no long wait for relief—it comes in the first twenty-four to thirty-six hours. Then eat Cereal Meal once a day as a "breakfast food."

When the bowels commence to act as they should, in the vast majority of cases, indigestion, acid stomach, headache, flatulence, bloating, and other multitude of other miserable conditions that invariably accompany constipation will disappear.

Cereal Meal not only saves the expense of the pills and laxatives, but it will take the place of any "breakfast food" that you may now be eating—and you will find Cereal Meal as stable as anything of the kind you have ever eaten.

About two-thirds of all adults are afflicted with constipation and it is responsible for more ill health than any other known disease. It will cost you nothing to learn more about it—then, if you see fit, deal more than money packages, the money you pay will be refunded on demand—forthwith—results are not a great deal more than satisfactory to you. Pomona Judge Includes Cleaning Process in Sentence.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.
POMONA, July 15.—Pedro Martinez was, today, sentenced to take a bath and then spend thirty days in the County Jail on a charge of vagrancy. The man declared that he had earned $1400 in the past year and, because he was out of luck, he had spent it all at the gambling tables at Mexican. He was found by the officers asleep under an orange tree on the outer edge of town and was brought before Judge White.

Martinez had on just four articles of clothing, a hat, shirt, trousers and a pair of ragged shoes. He said that he had spent the money of his money gambling that there was none left to buy clothes. He admitted that he had spent the money when he took his last bath as he was not particularly good at remembering dates.

OWNERS OF MINERAL RIGHTS AT SODA LAKE FAIL TO AGREE.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.
SANTA BARBARA, July 15.—A controversy between two factions of the Consolidated Chemical Company, resulted in a pitched battle at one o'clock yesterday morning at the company's holdings at Soda Lake, on the Carisa Plains, when M. F. Meigs and son of San Francisco, a man named R. R. Powell, and five other men who claimed to be Deputy Sheriffs from Los Angeles, made a forcible attempt to gain possession of the property.

The intruders smashed in the doors of the office and dwelling houses at the plant, and engaged in battle with C. S. Osborne, the night watchman, and several of the employees of the works. By three o'clock the Meigs forces had been put to flight by the possession of the plant, and left for McKittrick.

The Santa Barbara stockholders of the Consolidated Chemical Company, which owns and operates a valuable mineral deposit at Soda Lake in this county, holding the majority of stock in the company, and being dissatisfied with the Meigs management and several of the matters into their own hands, with the result that C. S. Osborne of Santa Barbara was delegated as general manager to get possession of the property, which he succeeded in doing. For the last two weeks Osborne, with the night watchman and employees of the plant have been holding the property.

The five men claiming to be Deputy Sheriffs from Los Angeles were evidently misrepresenting themselves as a message from Sheriff Cline of Los Angeles today stated that no deputies of his were in this section at this time, and requested that Sheriff Taylor get a line on the men, and the search for them has begun.

The papers and books of the company have been in the possession of Sheriff Taylor for several days, and it is expected that some sensational litigation will ensue.
